

Programmes:

China UK Development Limited (CUDL) is inviting English teachers to teach English in China. This programme aims to improve Chinese students' listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. In addition, teachers will be expected to develop students' confidence and interest in their studies.

This promises to be a comprehensive international teaching experience, where teachers will have the opportunity to live in a country with an extensive history and fascinating culture. Additional benefits include a generous wage, working visa, health insurance, free accommodation (including utilities), and an airfare reimbursement. More information is available on <http://englishteacher.cudc.info/>.

Who we are:

China UK Development Limited (CUDL) was founded on September 2012 with the aim of promoting educational and cultural exchanges between China and the United Kingdom (UK). Apart from the Teach English in China project, we also specialise in providing exchange programme and residential training schools for students from Asia.
