

University of Windsor
Senate

*5.5.6: Program Learning Outcomes – Sociology, Anthropology, Criminology, Family and Social Relations

Item for: Information

Forwarded by: Program Development Committee

General Sociology

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.  At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate  A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the discipline of sociology	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the discipline of sociology (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E)	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information
C	Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social life	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form	Interpersonal and communication skills
G	Collaborate with peers in discussing and debating social problems and issues	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ sociology as a framework for understanding society and social issues while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach social life	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I	Link core concepts of sociology to further areas of study relating to social life	The ability and desire for continuous learning

Honours Sociology

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.  At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate  A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, integrate and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the discipline of sociology	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the discipline of sociology (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E) 4) Identify strengths and limitations of methodological approaches to studying social life	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information
C	1) Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social life; 2) Evaluate one's social and cultural identity and location, power and privilege within a personal, social, cultural, political and global context (also relevant to E)	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently; 3) Interpret and assess numerical and statistical data	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Propose and assess solutions to social problems; 3) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	1) Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form; 2) Discuss and debate issues of social concern, supporting positions with theoretical arguments and empirical evidence, while remaining respectful of other perspectives	Interpersonal and communication skills
G	1) Collaborate with peers to build on discussions and debates relating to social problems and issues; 2) Design and implement group projects	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ sociology as a framework for understanding society and social issues while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach social life	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I	Link core concepts of sociology to further areas of study relating to social life	The ability and desire for continuous learning

Honours Criminology

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, integrate and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the disciplines of sociology and criminology	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the discipline of criminology (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E) 4) Identify strengths and limitations of methodological approaches to studying crime and criminal justice	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
C	1) Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social life; 2) Evaluate one's social and cultural identity and location, power and privilege within a persona, social, cultural, political and global context (also relevant to E)	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently; 3) Interpret and assess numerical and statistical data	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Propose and assess strategies for crime control and prevention; 3) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	1) Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form; 2) Discuss and debate issues of social concern, supporting positions with theoretical arguments and empirical evidence, while remaining respectful of other perspectives	Interpersonal and communication skills
G	1) Collaborate with peers to build on discussions and debates relating to social problems and criminal justice issues; 2) Design and implement group projects	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ sociology and criminology as frameworks for understanding social and criminal justice issues while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach social life	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I	Link core concepts of sociology and criminology to further areas of study relating to social life	The ability and desire for continuous learning

General Family and Social Relations

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the disciplines of sociology and family studies	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the disciplines of sociology and family studies (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E)	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information
C	Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social life	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently;	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form	Interpersonal and communication skills

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
G	Collaborate with peers in discussing and debating social problems and issues relating to family life	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ sociology and family studies as frameworks for understanding social and familial issues while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach social life	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I	Link core concepts of sociology and family studies to further areas of study relating to social life	The ability and desire for continuous learning

Honours Family and Social Relations

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
	At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, integrate and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the disciplines of sociology and family studies	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the disciplines of sociology and family studies (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E); 4) Identify strengths and limitations of methodological approaches to studying family life	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information
C	1) Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social life; 2) Evaluate one's social and cultural identity and location, power and privilege within a personal, social, cultural, political and global context (also relevant to E)	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently 3) Interpret and assess numerical and statistical data	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Propose and assess solutions to social problems relating to family life; 3) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	1) Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form; 2) Discuss and debate issues of social concern, supporting positions with theoretical arguments and empirical evidence, while remaining respectful of other perspectives	Interpersonal and communication skills
G	1) Collaborate with peers in building on discussions and debates relating to family life; 2) Design and implement group projects	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ sociology and family studies as frameworks for understanding social and familial issues while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach social life	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.  At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate  A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
I	Link core concepts of sociology and family studies to further areas of study relating to social life	The ability and desire for continuous learning

General Anthropology

	Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.  At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate  A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A	Identify, describe, and apply key concepts, theories and methods relevant to the disciplines of anthropology and sociology	The acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B	1) Conduct social research; 2) Evaluate ideas and research by scholars in the disciplines of anthropology and sociology (also relevant to C); 3) Follow research ethics guidelines (also relevant to E)	Research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information
C	Reflect critically on culture, social relations and/or social structures in order to develop a broader and deeper understanding of social/cultural life	Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D	1) Construct and articulate arguments clearly and concisely; 2) Organize and present evidence coherently;	Literacy and numeracy skills
E	1) Reflect critically on personal choices regarding social behaviour and interaction; 2) Adhere to principles of academic integrity	Responsible behavior to self, others and society
F	Express ideas clearly and persuasively in written and oral form	Interpersonal and communication skills
G	Collaborate with peers in discussing and debating cultural life	Teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H	Employ anthropology and sociology as frameworks for understanding culture and society while recognizing that there are multiple ways to approach cultural studies	Creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I	Link core concepts of anthropology and sociology to further areas of study relating to social and cultural life	The ability and desire for continuous learning