

WELCOME UWINDSOR FACULTY!

ABOUT CONTINUING EDUCATION

Continuing Education University of Windsor is comprised of a dynamic team of passionate professionals who work with faculty, industry partners and subject matter experts to create a variety of non-credit offerings in flexible, accessible and engaging formats that are open to all.

As a valued faculty member, your expertise and knowledge brings meaningful learning experiences to individuals in our community. By partnering with us through teaching or course development, you'll have the chance to leave a lasting impact on non-traditional learners, and industry professionals that could shape entire organizations.

WAYS WE CAN WORK TOGETHER

- Contact us if you have an idea for an offering you would like to develop with Continuing Education.
- Add yourself to our instructor interest list for opportunities to teach a Continuing Education offering.
- Tell your students about us as a resource for enhancing their academic studies or exploring personal interests.
- Follow us on social media so we can follow along on your UWindsor journey.
