

Congratulations to the 2023 Alumni Award Recipients!

The Distinguished Alumni Award (Dual & JD)

This award recognizes a graduate in any field of law who, through excellence in their career, brings distinction to the legal profession and enhances the reputation of Windsor Law.

Single JD Recipients:

Patrick J. Ducharme ('75)

Scott M. Rogers ('90)

The Honourable Justice John Yuan ('93)

Jacqueline Horvat ('01)

Arun Krishnamurti ('10)

Dual JD Recipient:

Her Worship Justice of the Peace Susan E. Whelan ('88)

The Emerging Leaders in the Law Award (Dual & JD)

This award recognizes alumni within 10 years of graduation for leadership in the legal profession and/or service to their community.

Single JD:

Chuck Andary ('13)

Dual JD:

Amanda Iarusso ('17)

The Extraordinary Contributions to Windsor Law in Memory of John Mountain '87

This award recognizes outstanding contributions to Windsor Law in honour of John who was a dedicated mentor, teacher, benefactor and community leader

Cynthia Nantais ('98)

Asha James ('08)

Samantha Hale ('18)

The Access to Justice Award

This award recognizes significant contributions by a graduate to improving access to justice.

The Honourable Justice Bruce J. Frazer ('72)

Amy Slotek ('10)

Parveen Sehra ('14) (Dual JD)

The Dual JD Transnational Leader Award

This award recognizes alumni who have achieved significant impact with their Dual JD degree on an international scale.

David L. Campbell ('04)

Nicola Geary ('00)

Carla S Machnik ('00)

The Builders of Windsor Law Award

This award recognizes individuals who are not necessarily alumni but who have made significant contributions to Windsor Law.

Ken Alexander ('92)

The Honourable Madam Justice Gerri Wong ('84)

Gregory George