APPLICATION DATA

Area of interest:

Child Welfare Health Gerontology

Area of Interest descriptions:

- Child Welfare: refers to research and practice in the area of the well-being of children and adolescents.
- Health: refers to research and practice regarding physical and psychological health issues, determinants of health, and relationships to psycho-social functioning.
- Gerontology: refers to research and practice relating to older adult populations.

Indicating an area of interest on the application is used by our field office in efforts to provide students with a learning experience that is more appropriate for them. It does not affect whether you will be admitted and there is no commitment on your part to focus on this area once you are in the program.

Which potential offering are you applying for:

Regular Track - 32 month program Fall Winter Year: 20____
 Advanced Standing - 16 month program Fall Winter Year: 20____

Important Considerations:

- Advanced Standing is for those who currently hold a BSW. Please apply for the Regular Track if you hold a 4-heat honours degree that is not a BSW.
 - Course offerings are online, but all practicum placements must be completed in Ontario.
 - Each candidate is expected to take a leave from their current position for the term(s) of their placement (13 weeks).
