Accessible Entrances

An accessible entrance to Erie Hall is on the northwest side of the building. The accessible walkway (ramp) is located on the north side of Lambton Tower and leads to the accessible entrance to Erie Hall and the accessible entrance to Lambton Tower.

Note: There is no elevator in Erie Hall but Lambton Tower has an elevator. Both buildings are connected on floors 1-3. See notes under the “Elevator” heading below.

An accessible walkway (ramp) leads to the accessible entrance of Erie Hall (brown building above) and an accessible entrance to Lambton Tower (grey building above).

Additional Entrances

Additional entrances to Erie Hall with stair access are located on the west side (near Turtle Island Walkway) and the south side of the building.

East entrance with stair access facing Turtle Island Walkway.

Elevator

There is a set of elevators that service both Erie Hall and Lambton Tower since the buildings are connected. The elevator is located within Lambton Tower and is near the hallway that joins with Erie Hall. To access the elevator for both buildings, use the Lambton Tower accessible entrance (one on the east side and one on the west side). The elevator leads to all 10 floors of Lambton Tower and can be used to access the 2nd and 3rd floors of Erie Hall.

The elevator call buttons are raised. The interior buttons are raised and in braille and are located to the east of the elevator doors. Grab bars are available in the interior of the elevator.
