Report of the Provost and Vice-President, Academic

Robert Aguirre

The Office of the Provost works collaboratively across the university to advance academic excellence. Guided by our strategic plan (Aspire: Together for Tomorrow), the office oversees long-range academic planning, teaching and learning, faculty innovation, student life and academic success, enrolment management, and institutional analysis. We are committed to promoting equity, sustainability, and the rich diversity of our campus.

1. Campus Update—Odette Dean finalists on campus in November

After an exhaustive search generating many excellent candidates, I am pleased to announce that we will host three highly promising finalists for the Dean of the Odette School of Business on campus during the first two weeks of November, dates to be finalized soon. Candidates will meet a broad range of individuals and groups.

We are hoping to identify a candidate of choice by the end of the calendar year. I encourage interested members of the university, whatever their discipline, to attend the public presentation and provide feedback to the search committee. I would like to thank the search committee for their excellent collegial work; it has been a privilege to collaborate with them on this project.

2. Campus Update—Approval of new bachelor's degree in Mechatronics

I am happy to report that the Faculty of Engineering recently received approval for a new undergraduate degree in Mechatronic Systems Engineering (MSE). This program was created in response to many of Engineering's industrial partners who need engineers that are versatile in the content of both mechanical and electrical engineering. The Mechatronics program will have two unique areas of specialization: autonomous vehicles and intelligent manufacturing. Local industry leaders have identified both areas of specialization as the most relevant for the Windsor/Essex area. The program will offer both a regular and co-op stream with a schedule of classes similar to the other Bachelor of Applied Science programs. Congratulations to the Faculty of Engineering for the excellent work in getting this program off the ground!

3. Odette School of Business Accreditation preliminary report

Odette is accredited by the AACSB, an honour bestowed on less than 6% of business schools worldwide. The AACSB Peer Review Team's recent visit to renew Odette's accreditation was a resounding success, although the formal announcement can only be made after receiving affirmation from the AACSB board. The team commended Odette on its strong focus on student support, innovative programming, and efforts to foster industry partnerships that contribute to outstanding student and alumni outcomes. Odette was also commended for its Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, Belonging, and Reconciliation initiatives. This positive feedback reflects Odette's dedication to continuous improvement and positions it well for future growth and impact.

4. Campus Update—Renewal process for Dean of the Faculty of Human Kinetics

In accordance with Senate procedures, the process to consider the request of the Dean of the Faculty of Human Kinetics for a 5-year renewal has commenced. I will update the Board on the outcome once the process has been completed.

5. Campus Update—Meet and greets for new advisors to Jewish and Palestinian students

We are pleased to welcome and celebrate two new faculty advisors supporting students, our Jewish Student Support Advisor Dr. Ira Cohen, and our Palestinian Student Support Advisor, Dr. Riham Al-Saadi. Meet and greets with our advisors have been scheduled for the weeks of November 4th and November 11th, at both the main and downtown campus locations. Information is posted on our Advisors' webpages.

Report of the Vice-President, People, Equity, and Inclusion

Clinton Beckford

1. People, Equity & Inclusion Strategy

- The People, Equity & Inclusion Strategy is currently under development with an expected completion of December 2024.
- The Strategy is designed to provide a framework for the development of more specific cascading plans for areas that will share in the responsibility for implementation. It will provide guidance to academic and non-academic units to embed people, equity and inclusion priorities within their own strategic and operational plans.
- A Consultative Working Group was established this spring comprised of colleagues from across the University with diverse perspectives and lived experiences.
- The strategy is grounded on the information gathered by the University over the last several years through various processes to take stock of our current opportunities and challenges with respect to equity, diversity & inclusion, anti-black racism, employee engagement and employee mental health.
- A first draft of the plan components has been completed and phase 1 of the feedback process is currently underway. Phase 2 and 3 will be deployed later in November.

2. Anti-Racism Plan

- University of Windsor first comprehensive AR Plan is being developed. The plan will provide a roadmap for addressing racism and racial discrimination in all its manifestations and is positioned to help the university meet its obligation under Bill 166.
- The AR Plan is aligned to the Aspire strategic priority of making the university a more, equitable, inclusive, safe, and just place to live, learn, and work.

3. Food Security Action Plan (FSAP)

- A draft of the University of Windsor's inaugural Food Security Action Plan 1.0 has been completed. The plan lays out a roadmap for addressing food insecurity among UW students.
- Consultations with student leadership and Senate Student Caucus has begun. We expect to have a final version in a couple of weeks and implementation work will begin immediately with a public education and awareness campaign to destigmatize hunger and poverty and mobilize support and resources for the FSAP.
- The plan is underpinned by seven foundational principles: food matters, zero hunger on campus, human dignity, central role for the administration, a multifaceted approach, inclusive, equitable, diverse, sustainable, and evidenced-based.

4. Student Self Identification Survey

- Preliminary data from the Student Self Identification Survey has been provided from ITS.
- Currently, the information is under review in order to determine the broader scope of data that is required.

5. UWinsite People (UWP)

- UWP is the new Human Resource Information System that the University is implementing this year to replace VIP.
- The goal is to drive meaningful change that supports the HR transformation objectives, streamline payroll processes, while aligning with the Aspire strategic plan.
- Phase 1 is set to launch campus-wide on January 6, 2025.

- 6. Employment Equity Coordinating Committee (EECC) Training and Education Subcommittee Lunch and Learn Series
- First session for 2024/2025 will be “Understanding Indigenization and Windsor’s Indigenous Presence”
 - First session to take place virtually on Thursday, November 21, 2024.
- 7. The Innovative Designs for Enhancing Accessibility (IDeA) Student Competition
- The competition for the 2024/2025 academic year is now open.
 - Students may enter inclusive, innovative, cost-effective, and practical ideas to solve accessibility-related barriers and win up to $500.
- 8. 2024 Black Alumni Weekend
- 2nd Annual Black Alumni Weekend 2024 welcomed 150+ guest to campus.
 - Feedback from the survey sent to attendees is all positive.
 - Overall consensus is that attendees appreciated the opportunity to reconnect and reengage.
- 9. Leadership Competency Framework
- The University of Windsor Leadership Competency Framework outlines the key competencies that when applied, makes an individual an effective leader. The framework creates a standard for leadership expectations across the University.
 - Focus groups with leaders were held in September to refine a draft framework. The revised framework has been shared with all leaders for final feedback. This process is expected to be completed by November 5, 2024.
 - Once completed, the competencies will be incorporated into recruitment processes, performance management/goal setting, leadership development initiatives/programs and succession planning/career progression.
- 10. Respectful Workplace Policy
- A committee has been established to guide the development of a Respectful Workplace policy.
 - The development of this policy is a key initiative stemming from the Employee Mental Health Strategy (2023) and the Employee Engagement Survey (2022) Key Actions.
 - Meetings are being scheduled with Deans Council, Manager’s Forum and unions/association presidents/chairs to inform the policy development as well as a program to support adoption.
- 11. Employee Mental Health Strategy
- Implementation of the strategy proceeds on target.
 - Latest updates can be found on the strategy website.
- 12. Working Group: Gender Identity, Gender Expression, Chosen Names and Pronouns Initiative
- Building from the Thriving on Campus Project, the Working Group: Gender Identity, Gender Expression, Chosen Names and Pronouns Initiative was established in the Fall 2023.
 - Co-Chaired by UWindsor Pride Committee and OHREA, as well as including participating members from Human Resources, Office of the Registrar, Information Technology Services and the Office of the Vice-President, People, Equity & Inclusion, this group’s mandate is to provide advice and guidance to the University of Windsor (VP, People, Equity & Inclusion) on the continued development and implementation of initiatives relating to gender identity, gender expression, chosen names, and pronouns.
 - To-date, the Working Group has initiated an environmental scan of best practices within the sector and will also be taking on a similar scan regarding best practices and initiatives within the University of Windsor campus community’s departments and faculties. As of September 2024, the Working Group was also successful in securing funding through the IT Strategic Priority Fund Program to:
 1. Facilitate a review of central IT systems, and the integrations between them, to identify opportunities for improvement in the pursuit of the Working Group’s high-level goal.
 2. Facilitate a survey of campus departments and organizations that maintain their own applications and records, to better understand the “shadow IT” context, and how the decentralized nature of these systems impedes progress on the high-level goal.

- In the near future, the Working Group also hopes to collaborate with other departments and faculties across campus to establish an institutional educational framework regarding gender identity, gender expression, chosen names and pronouns.

13. The CUBE

- Founded in 2022, the CUBE (a talent inCUBE-ator) is a groundbreaking, transformative initiative aimed at breaking down the formidable barriers Indigenous and Black scholars encounter in academia, amplifying their voices and fostering an environment of growth and nurturing. The CUBE provides resources, support, and opportunities for academic and career success.
- The CUBE's activities to support the participation of over 110 Black and Indigenous students from across disciplines include:
 - Workshop, networking, mentoring, research project, and experiential learning opportunities across a variety of scholarly disciplines and industries
 - 8 student RA positions created
 - 11 connections established on-campus, and with organizations in the community

14. Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities

- The Procedures for Addressing Student Non-Academic Misconduct has been updated and is currently in the form of a working draft.
- This draft incorporates the recommendations of consultants, builds on existing procedures' strengths while building in best practices and addressing gaps.
- At present, the working draft is being reviewed internally by an informal working group.
- A new user-friendly website has been created and will launch once the revised Procedures are finalized and approved.

Report of the Vice-President, Finance and Operations

Gillian Heisz

Successful Expropriation of the former 7/11 Property

We are pleased to share with the Board that the University has successfully expropriated the property at 2585 Wyandotte Street W, with Imperial Oil accepting the purchase price offered by the institution just this week. The property transferred as of September 30, so agreement on final purchase price was the final step. We are pleased to share that this strategic acquisition has been fully funded by a donor. Immediately the parking lot will open as the Welcome Centre lot, which will provide convenient hourly parking for campus visitors. Sodexo is in the early stages of investigating a potential re-opening of the convenience store building to serve our campus community. More information to follow.

Conclusion of Space and Future Use Study in Essex Hall

This month the space and future use study for Essex Hall concluded, with the steering committee receiving the final report from the consultants, CS&P. The VPFO and the VPRI co-chaired this important work. The study's timeline was extended slightly to allow CS&P to consider the impact of the closure of University Players on the study's result given its significant footprint in Essex Hall. The committee agreed on five important points as a result of their reflection on the study:

1. Accessibility is one of the very top concerns with the building, and any solution involving Essex Hall must prioritize accessibility for all campus members.
2. As the most inefficient building on campus, sustainability must also be a key priority. The architects suggested that the future of Essex Hall could move the current ground-level mechanical room to the roof and allow for that existing space to be used to create a fully accessible entrance.
3. There are underutilized spaces in the more modern buildings attached to Essex Hall (CORE and Jackman). Making these spaces, especially Jackman, more high traffic and well used spaces, could incrementally improve the student experience in the building without requiring significant investment.
4. One of the key feature of Essex that we should emulate in the future Essex (and other builds) is its flexibility general, open lab and classroom spaces that can easily be changed are key ways to “future proof” buildings.
5. While it is recognized that there is underutilized space in Essex, that space is likely required at least in the medium term to allow for a “swing space” as the various components of the building are renovated.

By way of next steps, the facilities team is looking for some small wins to provide the users of Essex Hall in the absence of the capital or government support to do a large scale renovation. This may include a renovation of the Essex Hall theatre into a classroom, ideally with an accessible entrance from Jackman, using Provincial facility renewal program funding. We plan to bring this forward as part of a future capital budget.

HRIS Update

As the Board is aware, we are reaching the key final weeks of the conversion of our HR information system, with UWinsite People going live on January 6. In the early days of November, the team commenced the data conversion and to date, they have been successful. The team along with Accenture remain fully committed to a successful go live in the New Year, and regular campus communication about the project, including the “pause” of some system functionality has been issued. I wish to thank the very devoted team primarily from HR, Finance and IT Services working to bring this strategic transformation to life.

Report of the Vice-President, Research, and Innovation

Shanthi Johnson

Research, scholarship, creative activity, and innovation play a pivotal role in shaping the University’s local and global influence, reputation, and impact. The research and innovation ecosystem directly impacts our ability to recruit and retain undergraduate and graduate students and build a robust education and training capacity pipeline. The Office of the Vice-President, Research and Innovation (OVPRI) is committed to inspiring and advancing inclusive research, scholarship, creative activity, and innovation in alignment with the University’s institutional strategic plan - Aspire: Together for Tomorrow. Our goal is to engage our community, creating strong, meaningful collaborations, actively involving both our internal and external stakeholders. The following provides an overview of the recent activities and initiatives undertaken by the OVPRI.

Spotlight on Canada Research Chairs – Update

The Canada Research Chairs (CRC) Program supports Canadian research excellence, investing more than $310 million annually to recruit and retain world-class researchers. There are two CRC types: Tier 1 Chairs for established researchers, and Tier 2 Chairs for early-career researchers. The program addresses equity and diversity in Chair representation through targets prompted by federal legal action. These equity targets relate to the federally designated equity deserving groups.

At the University of Windsor, the CRC program is a strategic institutional resource that promotes and grows our research and innovation opportunities. The allocation of CRCs to universities is based on a three-year average of the Tri-Agency funding received by the University. This past year, we took the opportunity to streamline the application processes. It is worth noting that the value of the Tier 1 ($200,000/year) and Tier 2 ($100,000) programs hasn’t changed in 25 years. This strategic investment is seen as a lever for growth, with one Tier 2 NSERC Chair gained at the University of Windsor in the last federal reallocation exercise.

Current UWindsor CRCs

We currently have 3 Tier 1 CRC's (Naryan Kar, Hugh Maclsaac and Aaron Fisk) and 3 Tier 2 CRCs (Catherine Febria, Jennifer Willet and Ning Zhang). We have had 1 Tier 1 CRC (Charlene Senn) and 1 Tier 2 CRC (Shijing Xu) complete their terms as of September 30, 2024 and we are undergoing the CRC cessation process.

Our current Tier 1 CRC's are providing research leadership in Engineering and Science:

Dr. Narayan Kar – Electrified Vehicles

Dr. Hugh Maclsaac – Aquatic Invasive Species

Dr. Aaron Fisk – Trophic Ecology

Our current Tier 2 CRC's are providing research leadership in Science, Engineering and FAHSS:

Dr. Catherine Febria – Freshwater Restoration Ecology

Dr. Jennifer Willet – Art, Science and Ecology

Dr. Ning Zhang – Edge Computing and the Internet of Vehicles

Current CRC Searches

There are three ongoing CRC searches, focusing on Public Health: FAHSS – Health Disparities and Public Health, Science – Environmental and Public Health Genomics and HK – Health Bioinformatics. The search process has concluded for the FAHSS and Science searches and we have moved to the federal nomination process, with applications anticipated by December 2024 and Spring 2025 respectively. The HK search is ongoing and a selection of the preferred candidate is anticipated shortly.

Future Planning

We will be starting the search for 5 vacant CRC positions in 2025. Future utilization and planning (allocation process) will involve a comprehensive combination of metrics (40%) and strategic focus (60%). The emphasis will be on interfaculty partnerships in key strategic areas and that will aid in meeting our equity targets required in the CRC program. We are currently engaging with the Deans, Associate Deans of Research and the Executive Leadership Team to identify areas for investment and growth to ensure alignment with Aspire and the cascading strategies/priorities.

Conclusion

The Canada Research Chairs (CRC) program is essential to our institution's research and innovation excellence and commitment to equity and inclusive diversity. By strategically investing in CRCs, we address historical inequities, foster interdisciplinary collaboration, and enhance our impact in key areas.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the University of Windsor Faculty and Certain Employees Retirement Plan (the "Faculty Plan") is a summary only. For more complete information, reference should be made to the Faculty Plan's text.

(a) General

The University of Windsor ("the University") sponsors two pension plans, the Retirement Plan for Faculty and Certain Employees ("the Faculty Plan") and the Employees' Retirement Plan ("the Employees' Plan"). The Board of Governors of the University is the Administrator of the University's pension plans ("Administrator"). The Faculty Plan is a money purchase plan with a defined benefit minimum guarantee. The Employees' Plan is a defined benefit plan.

The Master Trust Fund (the "Fund") holds the assets for both the Faculty Plan and the Employees' Plan. Although the Plans are distinct and separate, the assets are invested jointly under a Master Trust Agreement in order to maximize investment income while minimizing administrative costs and management fees.

(b) Funding policy

The Faculty Plan is a money purchase plan with a defined benefit minimum guarantee covering members of the faculty and certain administrative employees of the University. Members are required to contribute to the money purchase component account an amount equal to 9% of Pensionable Earnings. The University is required to contribute 6% of member Pensionable Earnings to the money purchase component account, and contributes the entire annual current service costs of the defined benefit minimum guarantee.

The Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) ("Act") requires that the University must fund the benefits determined under the Faculty Plan. The determinations of the value of these benefits are made on the basis of a triennial actuarial valuation and any current legislative requirements.

The most recent actuarial valuation for funding purposes was prepared as at July 1, 2023 by Mercer (Canada) Limited. A copy of the valuation was filed with the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario ("FSRA"), Pension Plans Branch as required by the Act.

(c) Benefits

Each member who retires from active service with the University will receive a pension in such amount as can be provided from the total balance in the money purchase component to the member's credit, calculated based on actuarial tables. In addition, each member will receive the minimum guaranteed benefit, calculated as 1.5% of the member's best average earnings not in excess of the average Canada pension plan base plus 2.0% of the member's best average earnings in excess of the average Canada pension plan base, together multiplied by the member's pensionable service. The normal retirement age of a member is 65.

(d) Income taxes

The Faculty Plan is a Registered Pension Trust as defined in the Income Tax Act and is not subject to income taxes.

(e) Investment policy

The Fund's trustee is Northern Trust ("Trustee"). The unit value of the Fund is calculated based on the fair value of the underlying investments of the Fund. Each of the University's pension plans' interest in the Fund is calculated monthly by the Trustee based on the units held by each of the pension plans.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Basis of presentation

As permitted by FSRA, the Faculty Plan may prepare financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans or prepare fund financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans excluding pension obligations and any resulting surplus or deficit.

The Faculty Plan has prepared fund financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans excluding pension obligations and any resulting surplus or deficit.

In selecting or changing accounting policies that do not relate to its investment portfolio or pension obligations, Canadian accounting standards for pension plans require the Faculty Plan to comply on a consistent basis with either International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") or the Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises. The Faculty Plan has chosen to comply on a consistent basis with IFRS.

These fund financial statements have been prepared to assist the Administrator of the Faculty Plan to comply with the requirements of the FSRA under Section 76 of Regulation 909 of the Act. As a result, the fund financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose.

These fund financial statements of the Faculty Plan do not purport to show the adequacy of the Faculty Plan's assets to meet its pension obligation. Such an assessment requires additional information, such as the Faculty Plan's actuarial reports and information about the University's financial health.

These fund financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the significant accounting policies set out below.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd)

(b) Basis of measurement

The fund financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for investments which are measured at fair value through the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

(c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the fund financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the Statement of net assets available for benefits and the reported amounts of changes in net assets during the year. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future years affected.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

In determining fair value, the Faculty Plan adopted the guidance in IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement ("IFRS 13"). As allowed under IFRS 13, if an asset or a liability measured at fair value has a bid and an ask price, the price within the bid-ask spread that is the most representative of fair value in the circumstances shall be used to measure fair value. The Faculty Plan uses closing market price as a practical expedient for fair value measurement.

When available, the Faculty Plan measures the fair value of an instrument using quoted prices in an active market for that instrument. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available and represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

If a market for a financial instrument is not active, then the Faculty Plan establishes fair value using a valuation technique. Valuation techniques include using recent arm's length transactions between knowledgeable, willing parties (if available), reference to the current fair value of other instruments that are substantially the same, discounted cash flow analyses and option pricing models.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

(a) Fair value measurement (cont'd)

The best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument at initial recognition is the transaction price, i.e. the fair value of the consideration given or received, unless the fair value of that instrument is evidenced by comparison with other observable current market transactions in the same instrument or based on a valuation technique whose variables include only data from observable markets. When the transaction price provides the best evidence of fair value at initial recognition, the financial instrument is initially measured at the transaction price and any difference between this price and the value initially obtained from a valuation model is subsequently recognized in profit or loss on an appropriate basis over the life of the instrument but not later than when the valuation is supported wholly by observable market data or the transaction is closed out.

Within the Faculty Plan, all changes in fair value, other than interest and dividend income, are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as part of the current period increase (decrease) in market values of investments.

Fair values of investments are determined as follows:

Pooled fund investments are valued at the unit values supplied by the Trustee, which represent the Faculty Plan's proportionate share of underlying net assets at fair values, determined using closing market prices.

Real asset pooled funds are valued by independent market appraisals. The pooled fund manager performs quarterly valuations of the underlying assets held in the pooled fund to determine fair values.

Private equity pooled funds are comprised of third-party managed private equity funds as well as direct investments in private companies. Investments in private equity funds are recognized at fair values using net asset values supplied by the pooled fund administrator where available. Where net asset values are not available, fair values are determined by using the best available information, and incorporate valuation techniques such as pricing models, market comparable valuations and/or discounted cash flows for the underlying positions.

Bonds and equities not held in pooled funds are valued at year-end quoted market prices where available. Where quoted prices are not available, estimated fair values are calculated using comparable securities.

Short-term notes, treasury bills and term deposits maturing within a year are stated at cost, which together with accrued interest income approximates fair value given the short-term nature of these investments.

Guaranteed investment certificates, term deposits maturing after a year, and mortgages are valued at the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at interest rates in effect on the last business day of the year for investments of a similar type, quality, and maturity.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

(b) Financial assets and financial liabilities

(i) Non-derivative financial assets

Financial assets are recognized initially on the trade date, which is the date that the Faculty Plan becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value through the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

All other non-derivative financial assets including contributions receivable are measured at amortized cost.

The Faculty Plan de-recognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Faculty Plan neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset. On de-recognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and consideration received is recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as a net realized gain (loss) on sale of investments.

(ii) Non-derivative financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are recognized initially on the trade date at which the Faculty Plan becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Faculty Plan derecognizes a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired.

The Faculty Plan considers its accrued liabilities to be a non-derivative financial liability.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the Statement of net assets available for benefits when, and only when, the Faculty Plan has a legal right to offset the amounts and it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(c) Net realized gain on sale of investments

The net realized gain on sale of investments is the difference between proceeds received and the average cost of investments sold.

(d) Investment recognition

Investment income, which is recorded on the accrual basis, includes interest and dividend income.

Brokers' commissions and other transaction costs are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits in the year incurred.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

(e) Foreign currency

The functional and presentation currency of the fund financial statements is Canadian dollars. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are then translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate at that date.

Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as a current period increase (decrease) in market values of investments.

(f) Fund unit valuation

The Employees' and Faculty Plans are issued units in the Fund based on the unit value at the Valuation Date, prior to which a contribution was made. Capital gains and losses, plus investment income, net of agency fees, custodian fees and investment managers' fees are allocated to each participating pension plan on a pro-rata basis. The Faculty Plans' units are redeemed based on the unit value at the Valuation Date prior to which the request for redemption is made by the Faculty Plan.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Fair values

The fair value measurement of investments are as described in note 3(a). The fair values of other financial assets and liabilities, being other assets and accrued liabilities, approximate their carrying values due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments.

Fair value measurements recognized in the Statement of net assets available for benefits are categorized using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs used in determining the fair values.

- Level 1 - unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - inputs for assets and liabilities that are not based on observable market data

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

(b) Risk management

(i) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that value of an instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to an individual investment, its issuer or all factors affecting all instruments traded in the market.

As all of the Faculty Plan's financial instruments are carried at fair value with fair value changes recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits, all changes in market conditions will result in an increase (decrease) in net assets available for benefits. Market risk is managed by the Administrator through construction of a diversified portfolio of instruments traded on various markets and across various industries. The Pension Plan Fund Statement of Investment Policies and Procedures ("SIPP") determines the portfolio diversification, and sets limits on the equity holdings of the Fund. In addition, the SIPP permits the hedging of market price risk using derivative financial instruments.

The Fund's investments in common and preferred shares are also sensitive to market fluctuations. An immediate hypothetical increase (decrease) of 10% in equity values will impact the Fund's equity investments by an approximate gain (loss) of $48,699 (2023 – $46,355). The Faculty Plan's pro-rata share of this gain (loss) would be $33,266 (2023 – $31,786).

(ii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Faculty Plan will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The SIPP determines the portfolio diversification, and set limits on the fixed income investments of the Fund. In addition, the Fund's investments include pooled funds to mitigate liquidity risk.

(iii) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or counterparty will be unable or unwilling to meet a commitment that it has entered into with the Faculty Plan. The Administrator does not expect any counterparties to fail to meet their obligations given their high credit ratings. The SIPP also establishes minimum credit rating requirements for such investments to mitigate this risk.

The Fund's fixed income investments are in Canadian-issued instruments and are diversified among federal, provincial, corporate and other issuers. In order to minimize the exposure of risk, a comprehensive investment policy has been developed. There were no significant concentrations of credit risk in the portfolio in either 2024 or 2023. The maximum credit risk exposure as at June 30, 2024 is $322,895 (2023 – $313,246). The Faculty Plan's pro-rata share of this risk exposure is $220,569 (2023– $214,793).

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

(b) Risk management (cont'd)

(iii) Credit risk (cont'd)

The following table provides the breakdown of the total fixed income investments by credit rating. In addition to the table below, the Fund holds mortgages within pooled fund investments with a market value at June 30, 2024 of $5,845 (2023 – $5,529). The Faculty Plan's pro-rata share in the mortgage holdings is $3,992 (2023 – $3,791).

Credit Rating	2024 Fund Fair Value	2024 Plan's Pro-rata share by credit rating	2023 Fund Fair Value	2023 Plan's Pro-rata share by credit rating
	$	$	$	$
AAA	48,798	33,334	39,802	27,292
AA	175,230	119,700	175,900	120,615
A	58,647	40,062	56,194	38,532
BBB	33,934	23,180	35,394	24,270
BB and under	441	301	427	293
	317,050	216,577	307,717	211,002

(iv) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the market value of the Faculty Plan's investments will fluctuate due to the changes in the market interest rates. To properly manage the Faculty Plan's interest rate risk, appropriate guidelines on the weighting and duration for the bonds and other fixed income investments are set and monitored. The Faculty Plan's investments in fixed income are sensitive to interest rate movements. An immediate hypothetical 1% decrease (increase) in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would impact Canadian bonds and debentures by an estimated gain (loss) of approximately $63,156 (2023 – $61,353) for the Fund. The Faculty Plan's pro-rata share of this gain (loss) would be $43,142 (2023 – $42,070).

(v) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of the changes in foreign currency rates. The Faculty Plan is exposed to risks that the exchange rate of the foreign currency may change in a manner that has an adverse effect on the value of the portion of the Faculty Plan's underlying assets or liabilities invested in foreign transactions. The Administrator monitors the Faculty Plan's overall currency positions and exposures on a regular basis. In addition, the SIPP permits the hedging of market price risk using derivative financial instruments. The Faculty Plan's exposure to foreign currencies would not create a significant change in the fair value of the assets except for the Faculty Plan's exposure to the US dollar. If the US dollar strengthened or weakened by 5% the Fund's US dollar holdings would change by $13,818 (2023 – $14,695). The Faculty Plan's pro-rata share of this risk exposure is $9,439 (2023 – $10,076).

9. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The capital of the Fund is represented by the net assets available for benefits. The Fund's objective when managing the capital is to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain adequate assets to support pension obligations. The Administrator has adopted the SIPP, which states investment objectives, guidelines and benchmarks used in investing the capital of the plan, permitted categories of investments, asset-mix diversification and rate of return expectations. The SIPP is reviewed annually and was last amended effective May 23, 2023.

The Faculty Plan invests in units of the Fund, which itself invests in various investment vehicles, in accordance with the SIPP and investment mandates specific to each investment manager. The Fund's investment positions expose it to a variety of financial risks which are discussed in Note 8 – Financial Instruments. The allocation of assets among various asset categories is on a monthly basis. A comprehensive review is conducted quarterly, which includes measurement of returns, comparison of returns to appropriate benchmarks, ranking of returns to appropriate universes and risk analysis.

10. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Faculty Plan defines its key management personnel as the University's Board of Governors and other members of senior administration responsible for planning, controlling and directing the activities of the Faculty Plan. The Faculty Plan has not paid for services provided by key management personnel.

The University provides certain administrative services to the Faculty Plan. The cost to the Faculty Plan for these services during the year ended June 30, 2024 was $275 (2023 – $238), which is included in Sponsor administrative and trustee fees in Note 7 – Administrative Expenses.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the University of Windsor Employees' Retirement Plan (the "Employees' Plan") is a summary only. For more complete information, reference should be made to the Employees' Plan's text.

(a) General

The University of Windsor ("the University") sponsors two pension plans, the Retirement Plan for Faculty and Certain Employees ("the Faculty Plan") and the Employees' Retirement Plan ("the Employees' Plan"). The Board of Governors of the University is the Administrator of the University's pension plans ("Administrator"). The Faculty Plan is a money purchase plan with a defined benefit minimum guarantee. The Employees' Plan is a defined benefit plan.

The Master Trust Fund (the "Fund") holds the assets for both the Faculty Plan and the Employees' Plan. Although the Plans are distinct and separate, the assets are invested jointly under a Master Trust Agreement in order to maximize investment income while minimizing administrative costs and management fees.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024, the University undertook a comprehensive review and update of the pension plan text which was filed with the regulator on December 20, 2023. These updates were implemented to ensure compliance with legislative requirements, address changes resulting from collective bargaining agreements and improvements to the clarity of the plan text.

(b) Funding policy

The Employees' Plan is a defined benefit pension plan covering eligible employees of the University. The Employees' Plan is a fully cost shared plan, with employees contributing between 6.3% and 9.0% of earnings. These contribution rates will continue to the date of the next actuarial valuation, at which time the contribution rates will be assessed. The University matched all contributions during the year.

The Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) ("Act") requires that the University must fund the benefits determined under the Employees' Plan. The determinations of the value of these benefits are made on the basis of a triennial actuarial valuation and any current legislative requirements.

The most recent actuarial valuation for funding purposes was prepared as at July 1, 2021 by Mercer (Canada) Limited. A copy of the valuation was filed with the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario ("FSRA"), Pension Plans Branch as required by the Act.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN (cont'd)

(c) Benefits

Retirement benefits are calculated as 1.5% of the member's best average earnings not in excess of the average Canada pension plan base plus 2.0% of the member's best average earnings in excess of the average Canada pension plan base, together multiplied by the member's pensionable service. Post-retirement indexing is applied as one-half of the excess of the Average Fund Rate of Return over the valuation interest rate, capped at 50% of the CPI for the year. The normal retirement age of a member is 65.

(d) Income taxes

The Employees' Plan is a Registered Pension Trust as defined in the Income Tax Act and is not subject to income taxes.

(e) Investment policy

The Fund's trustee is Northern Trust ("Trustee"). The unit value of the Fund is calculated based on the fair value of the underlying investments of the Fund. Each of the University's pension plans' interest in the Fund is calculated monthly by the Trustee based on the units held by each of the pension plans.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Basis of presentation

As permitted by FSRA, the Employees' Plan may prepare financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans or prepare fund financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans excluding pension obligations and any resulting surplus or deficit.

The Employees' Plan has prepared fund financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for pension plans excluding pension obligations and any resulting surplus or deficit.

In selecting or changing accounting policies that do not relate to its investment portfolio or pension obligations, Canadian accounting standards for pension plans require the Employees' Plan to comply (on a consistent basis) with either International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") or the Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises. The Employees' Plan has chosen to comply on a consistent basis with IFRS.

These fund financial statements have been prepared to assist the Administrator of the Employees' Plan to comply with the requirements of FSRA under Section 76 of Regulation 909 of the Act. As a result, the fund financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose.

These fund financial statements of the Employees' Plan do not purport to show the adequacy of the Employees' Plan's assets to meet its pension obligation. Such an assessment requires additional information, such as the Employees' Plan's actuarial reports and information about the University's financial health.

These fund financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the significant accounting policies set out below.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd)

(b) Basis of measurement

The fund financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for investments which are measured at fair value through the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

(c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the fund financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the Statement of net assets available for benefits and the reported amounts of changes in net assets during the year. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future years affected.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

In determining fair value, the Employees' Plan adopted the guidance in IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement ("IFRS 13"). As allowed under IFRS 13, if an asset or a liability measured at fair value has a bid and an ask price, the price within the bid-ask spread that is the most representative of fair value in the circumstances shall be used to measure fair value. The Employees' Plan uses closing market price as a practical expedient for fair value measurement.

When available, the Employees' Plan measures the fair value of an instrument using quoted prices in an active market for that instrument. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available and represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

If a market for a financial instrument is not active, then the Employees' Plan establishes fair value using a valuation technique. Valuation techniques include using recent arm's length transactions between knowledgeable, willing parties (if available), reference to the current fair value of other instruments that are substantially the same, discounted cash flow analyses and option pricing models.

(a) Fair value measurement (cont'd)

The best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument at initial recognition is the transaction price, i.e., the fair value of the consideration given or received, unless the fair value of that instrument is evidenced by comparison with other observable current market transactions in the same instrument or based on a valuation technique whose variables include only data from observable markets. When the transaction price provides the best evidence of fair value at initial recognition, the financial instrument is initially measured at the transaction price and any difference between this price and the value initially obtained from a valuation model is subsequently recognized in profit or loss on an appropriate basis over the life of the instrument but not later than when the valuation is supported wholly by observable market data or the transaction is closed out.

Within the Employees' Plan, all changes in fair value, other than interest and dividend income, are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as part of the current period increase (decrease) in market values of investments.

Fair values of investments are determined as follows:

Pooled fund investments are valued at the unit values supplied by the Trustee, which represent the Employees' Plan's proportionate share of underlying net assets at fair values, determined using closing market prices.

Real asset pooled funds are valued by independent market appraisals. The pooled fund manager performs quarterly valuations of the underlying assets held in the pooled fund to determine fair values.

Private equity pooled funds are comprised of third-party managed private equity funds as well as direct investments in private companies. Investments in private equity funds are recognized at fair values using net asset values supplied by the pooled fund administrator where available. Where net asset values are not available, fair values are determined by using the best available information, and incorporate valuation techniques such as pricing models, market comparable valuations and/or discounted cash flows for the underlying positions.

Bonds and equities not held in pooled funds are valued at year-end quoted market prices where available. Where quoted prices are not available, estimated fair values are calculated using comparable securities.

Short-term notes, treasury bills and term deposits maturing within a year are stated at cost, which together with accrued interest income approximates fair value given the short-term nature of these investments.

Guaranteed investment certificates, term deposits maturing after a year, and mortgages are valued at the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at interest rates in effect on the last business day of the year for investments of a similar type, quality, and maturity.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

(b) Financial assets and financial liabilities

(i) Non-derivative financial assets

Financial assets are recognized initially on the trade date, which is the date that the Employees' Plan becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value through the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

All other non-derivative financial assets including contributions receivable are measured at amortized cost.

The Employees' Plan de-recognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Employees' Plan neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset. On de-recognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and consideration received is recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as a net realized gain (loss) on sale of investments.

(ii) Non-derivative financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are recognized initially on the trade date at which the Employees' Plan becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Employees' Plan derecognizes a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired.

The Employees' Plan considers its accrued liabilities to be a non-derivative financial liability.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the Statement of net assets available for benefits when, and only when, the Employees' Plan has a legal right to offset the amounts and it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(c) Net realized gain on sale of investments

The net realized gain on sale of investments is the difference between proceeds received and the average cost of investments sold.

(d) Investment recognition

Investment income, which is recorded on the accrual basis, includes interest and dividend income.

Brokers' commissions and other transaction costs are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits in the year incurred.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

(e) Foreign currency

The functional and presentation currency of the fund financial statements is Canadian dollars. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are then translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate at that date.

Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as a current period increase (decrease) in market values of investments.

(f) Fund unit valuation

The Employees' and Faculty Plans are issued units in the Fund based on the unit value at the Valuation Date, prior to which a contribution was made. Capital gains and losses, plus investment income, net of agency fees, custodian fees and investment managers' fees are allocated to each participating pension plan on a pro-rata basis. The Employees' Plan's units are redeemed based on the unit value at the Valuation Date prior to which the request for redemption is made by the Employees' Plan.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Fair values

The fair value measurement of investments are as described in note 3(a). The fair values of other financial assets and liabilities, being other assets and accrued liabilities, approximate their carrying values due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments.

Fair value measurements recognized in the Statement of net assets available for benefits are categorized using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs used in determining the fair values.

- Level 1 - unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - inputs for assets and liabilities that are not based on observable market data.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

(b) Risk management

(i) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that value of an instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to an individual investment, its issuer or all factors affecting all instruments traded in the market.

As all of the Employees' Plan's financial instruments are carried at fair value with fair value changes recognized in the Statement of changes in net assets available for benefits, all changes in market conditions will result in an increase (decrease) in net assets available for benefits. Market risk is managed by the Administrator through construction of a diversified portfolio of instruments traded on various markets and across various industries. The Pension Plan Fund Statement of Investment Policies and Procedures ("SIPP") determines the portfolio diversification, and sets limits on the equity holdings of the Fund. In addition, the SIPP permits the hedging of market price risk using derivative financial instruments.

The Fund's investments in common and preferred shares are also sensitive to market fluctuations. An immediate hypothetical increase (decrease) of 10% in equity values will impact the Fund's equity investments by an approximate gain (loss) of $48,699 (2023 – $46,355). The Employees' Plan's pro-rata share of this gain (loss) would be $15,433 (2023 – $14,569).

(ii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Employees' Plan will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The SIPP determines the portfolio diversification, and set limits on the fixed income investments of the Fund. In addition, the Fund's investments include pooled funds to mitigate liquidity risk.

(iii) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or counterparty will be unable or unwilling to meet a commitment that it has entered into with the Employees' Plan. The Administrator does not expect any counterparties to fail to meet their obligations given their high credit ratings. The SIPP also establishes minimum credit rating requirements for such investments to mitigate this risk.

The Fund's fixed income investments are in Canadian-issued instruments and are diversified among federal, provincial, corporate and other issuers. In order to minimize the exposure of risk, a comprehensive investment policy has been developed. There were no significant concentrations of credit risk in the portfolio in either 2024 or 2023. The maximum credit risk exposure as at June 30, 2024 is $322,895 (2023– $313,246). The Employees' Plan's pro-rata share of this risk exposure is $102,326 (2023 – $98,453).

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (cont'd)

(b) Risk management (cont'd)

(iii) Credit risk (cont'd)

The following table provides the breakdown of the total fixed income investments by credit rating. In addition to the table below, the Fund holds mortgages within pooled fund investments with a market value at June 30, 2024 of $5,845 (2023 – $5,529). The Employees' Plan's pro-rata share in the mortgage holdings is $1,853 (2023 – $1,738).

Credit Rating	2024 Fund Fair Value $	2024 Plan's Pro-rata share by credit rating $	2023 Fund Fair Value $	2023 Plan's Pro-rata share by credit rating $
AAA	48,798	15,464	39,802	12,510
AA	175,230	55,530	175,900	55,285
A	58,647	18,585	56,194	17,662
BBB	33,934	10,754	35,394	11,124
BB and under	441	140	427	134
	317,050	100,473	307,717	96,715

(iv) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the market value of the Employees' Plan's investments will fluctuate due to the changes in the market interest rates. To properly manage the Employees' Plan's interest rate risk, appropriate guidelines on the weighting and duration for the bonds and other fixed income investments are set and monitored. The Employees' Plan's investments in fixed income are sensitive to interest rate movements. An immediate hypothetical 1% decrease (increase) in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would impact Canadian bonds and debentures by an estimated gain (loss) of approximately $63,156 (2023 – $61,353) for the Fund. The Employees' Plan's pro-rata share of this gain (loss) would be $20,014 (2023 – $19,283).

(v) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of the changes in foreign currency rates. The Employees' Plan is exposed to risks that the exchange rate of the foreign currency may change in a manner that has an adverse effect on the value of the portion of the Employees' Plan's underlying assets or liabilities invested in foreign transactions. The Administrator monitors the Employees' Plan's overall currency positions and exposures on a regular basis. In addition, the SIPP permits the hedging of market price risk using derivative financial instruments. The Employees' Plan's exposure to foreign currencies would not create a significant change in the fair value of the assets except for the Employees' Plan's exposure to the US dollar. If the US dollar strengthened or weakened by 5% the Fund's US dollar holdings would change by $13,818 (2023 – $14,695). The Employees' Plan's pro-rata share of this risk exposure is $4,379 (2023 – $4,619).

9. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The capital of the Fund is represented by the net assets available for benefits. The Fund's objective when managing the capital is to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain adequate assets to support pension obligations. The Administrator has adopted the SIPP, which states investment objectives, guidelines and benchmarks used in investing the capital of the plan, permitted categories of investments, asset-mix diversification and rate of return expectations. The SIPP is reviewed annually and was last amended effective May 23, 2023.

The Employees' Plan invests in units of the Fund, which itself invests in various investment vehicles, in accordance with the SIPP and investment mandates specific to each investment manager. The Fund's investments expose it to a variety of financial risks which are discussed in Note 8 – Financial Instruments. The allocation of assets among various asset categories is on a monthly basis. A comprehensive review is conducted quarterly, which includes measurement of returns, comparison of returns to appropriate benchmarks, ranking of returns to appropriate universes and risk analysis.

10. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Employees' Plan defines its key management personnel as the University's Board of Governors and other members of senior administration responsible for planning, controlling and directing the activities of the Employees' Plan. The Employees' Plan has not paid for services provided by key management personnel.

The University provides certain administrative services to the Employees' Plan. The cost to the Employees' Plan for these services during the year ended June 30, 2024 was $128 (2023 – $126), which is included in Sponsor administrative and trustee fees in Note 7 – Administrative Expenses.

4.4.1: Board Meeting Schedule

Item for: Information

Forwarded by: Board Governance Committee

Following the last Board meeting, a review of the UWindsor Board meeting scheduled compared to Ontario and the broader Canadian university sector was conducted. UWindsor's Board meeting schedule and bylaw is consistent with other universities.

Of 36 Canadian universities who responded to a survey, 9 hold 4 meetings per year; 22 hold 5 meetings per year; and 5 hold 6 meetings per year. (31 of 36 hold 4-5 board meetings per year) Of the 19 Ontario universities*, 12 specify in their board bylaw that they must meet four times; 4 state that they must meet five times; and 3 state that they must meet six times.

UofT was not included in the count as it is unicameral, meaning it does not have a Board and Senate. It has one overarching governing body that oversees both and so is not equivalent. That said, their bylaw states that the Governing Council meets at least five times between September 1 and the following June 30 in each academic year.*

The number of Board meetings across the Ontario and broader Canadian university sector reflects the division between the jurisdiction of the Board (strategic direction and setting appropriate policies and frameworks) and that of management (day-to-day/month-to-month), as well as good governance practices whereby the work of the Board is, for the most part, effected through its Committees who are tasked with doing the "heavy lifting" – reviewing materials in greater depth, ensuring all issues are addressed, before submitting recommendations with rationales to the full Board.

Board Jurisdiction: Oversight of fiduciary/operational aspects. As a governing body, the Board's role is one of strategic direction and oversight and not management or executive decision-making. This oversight role is exercised by the Board through its review, approval, and monitoring of strategic plans and priorities, bylaws, policies, and frameworks at the strategic level. These documents set the principles and parameters that permit management to exercise its day-to-day/month-to-month executive and operational decision-making authority fairly and consistently.

A governing board does not delve into operational matters (eg., the specifics of realignment activities) and operational decision-making; these fall under the purview of management not the Board.

Note: A review of the number of UWindsor Board meetings over the last 30 years, indicates that the Board meets on average 5-6 per year (with very few anomalies/special meetings), with June meetings only as required. In addition to regular Board meetings, Board retreats were added in 2010 and Board/Senate retreats were added in 2022.

The Board has consistently met its fiduciary duty. Scheduling more regular meetings annually would likely result in a confusion of the role of the Board and Management, and would go against good governance principles and best practices as followed by Ontario and Canadian universities.

Many of the Canadian experts in the field of good governance are from Canadian universities and have been studying university governance and governance in general for decades. Canadian universities have been and will continue to be leaders in ensuring good governance practices.

*4.5.1: President and Senior Executive Long-Term Succession Planning Framework

Item for: Approval

Forwarded by: Board Human Resources Committee

MOTION: That the Board approve the President and Senior Executive Long-Term Succession Planning Framework.*

the current policies which sets out the framework for succession planning for the office of President or Senior Administration in the event of the death, resignation, termination, long-term disability, or temporary absence from the role will be renamed President Emergency Succession Planning Framework and Senior Executive Emergency Succession Planning Framework, respectively.*

Rationale:

- Presidential and Senior Executive long-term succession planning is crucial for ensuring the long-term stability and strategic leadership at the University of Windsor.
- Presidential and senior executive leadership development priorities will be included in goal setting as appropriate, and reviewed by the Human Resources Committee.
- The proposed framework addresses recommendation 11 of the AGO report, and builds on it by broadening the framework to include senior executive succession planning.

See attached.

Presidential and Senior Executive Long-Term Succession Planning Framework

Background: Presidential and Senior Executive succession planning is crucial for ensuring the long-term stability and strategic leadership at the University of Windsor. Effective succession planning involves identifying and developing potential leaders within the institution while also providing opportunities for external training and professional growth.

Assessment Criteria for Identified Succession Candidates

1. Strategic Vision and Alignment with Institutional Goals

University executives must have a clear vision for the institution that aligns with its mission, values, and long-term strategy. The ability to inspire and mobilize stakeholders—faculty, staff, students, alumni, and donors—is critical to translating this vision into action. The assessment evaluates and then curates the current executive’s understanding of the institution's strengths and challenges, and their capacity to articulate a compelling roadmap for future success.

2. Academic Leadership and Commitment to Excellence

Senior academic leaders need to demonstrate a deep commitment to academic excellence. This involves having a proven track record in research, teaching, and supporting innovation. Employees will be provided with opportunity to foster academic growth, enhancing student success, and promoting interdisciplinary collaboration.

3. Financial Acumen and Resource Management

As universities face increased financial pressures, leaders must be skilled in resource management, fundraising, and financial sustainability. This criterion assesses the executive’s ability to manage budgets, optimize resources, and generate new revenue streams through partnerships, alumni relations, and government funding.

4. Governance and Stakeholder Engagement

Effective governance is central to leading a university. The assessment looks at the candidate’s experience in working with a Board of Governors, academic councils, and external partners, as well as their ability to navigate complex regulatory environments. Building strong relationships with internal and external stakeholders is crucial for a university's long-term success.

5. Change Management and Adaptability

University leaders must be adaptable and forward-thinking in addressing changes in higher education, from technological advancements to shifts in policy. The assessment evaluates the candidate's ability to lead transformative initiatives, manage crises, and foster a culture of innovation.

6. Emotional Intelligence and Leadership Style

Leadership in an academic setting requires not only intellectual acumen but also emotional intelligence. The assessment focuses on the candidate’s interpersonal skills, ability to lead diverse teams, and approach to conflict resolution. Candidates with high emotional intelligence can create inclusive, supportive environments conducive to institutional growth.

Supports for Identified Succession Candidates

Internal Training Opportunities: Internal training programs play a central role in preparing future leaders. These opportunities will focus on university governance, strategic planning, financial management, and academic leadership. In-house workshops and seminars provide identified leaders with the skills to understand the complexities of the University of Windsor environment. The Executive leaders will encourage cross-departmental collaboration, leadership of large institutional projects, presentations to the Board of Governors and Committees, as well as institutional committee work to expose potential leaders to different facets of institutional operations.

An updated use of the Senior Leadership Forum, provides a structured opportunity which helps build a pipeline of talent that is aligned with the university’s culture and values, preparing individuals to step into presidential and senior executive roles when needed.

External Training Opportunities: To expose candidates to broader perspectives, Vice-Presidents and Deans are encouraged to attend leadership conferences, workshops, and executive education programs offered by prestigious institutions such as Harvard University or the Centre for Higher Education Research and Development (CHERD). The Canadian Association of University Business Officers and the Ontario University Council both hold several thought leadership counsels, conferences and subject specific working groups. These external programs provide access to federal best practices, trends in higher education governance, and strategies for dealing with the changing landscape of post-secondary education.

Participation in professional associations is also encouraged and supports to participate in international networks provides opportunities for benchmarking and peer-learning.

Use of Professional Coaching: Professional coaching has become an increasingly popular tool in leadership development. Executive coaching programs are typically designed for high-potential leaders such as Vice-Presidents, Deans and Associate vice presidents, offering personalized guidance in areas such as decision-making, strategic thinking, and emotional intelligence. This one-on-one support helps build self-awareness and resilience—key attributes for executive leadership.

Coaches often work closely with individuals and teams to identify leadership gaps and provide tailored advice on how to overcome challenges, improve performance, and better align personal goals with the university's strategic objectives. Coaching also supports leaders in navigating the complexities of higher education governance and politics.

Goal Setting and Formal Feedback Processes: As an essential component of goal setting, leadership development provides structured processes for Vice-Presidents, Deans, and Associate Vice-Presidents. All leaders are establishing specific, measurable goals that align with the institution's strategic plan. These goals may focus on academic excellence, financial sustainability, faculty development, and student outcomes.

To ensure accountability and continuous improvement, the University of Windsor will add formal performance review cycles on an annual basis. These reviews provide an opportunity for feedback from supervisors, peers, and even external stakeholders. By assessing progress towards strategic goals, these feedback processes offer leaders insights into their strengths and areas for improvement. Such structured evaluations not only ensure individual growth but also contribute to the broader goal of preparing effective presidential successors.

Framework for when to Choose an Internal vs. External Candidates

Internal Candidate Advantages:

- Deep Understanding of the Institution: Internal candidates possess a comprehensive knowledge of the university's culture, history, and operational structures. They are often familiar with internal stakeholders and processes, allowing for a smoother transition.
- Continuity and Stability: Internal leaders can ensure continuity, especially if the university is in a phase of sustained growth or stability. Promoting from within can also reinforce morale and signal institutional confidence in its talent pool.
- Quicker Adaptation: Internal candidates may require less time to adapt to the role, as they are already familiar with key issues, stakeholders, and institutional strategies.

When an Internal Candidate Might be Chosen:

- The university has a clear, stable strategic direction that aligns with the skills of current leaders.
- The institution values continuity, and there are qualified internal candidates ready to step into leadership.
- The challenges ahead are primarily operational rather than transformative, making familiarity with internal systems a key asset.

External Candidate Advantages:

- Fresh Perspective: External candidates can bring new ideas, innovative approaches, and experiences from other institutions or industries. This is particularly valuable when a university is undergoing significant change or needs revitalization.
- Broader Expertise: External leaders often bring experience from diverse settings, whether from other universities, the public sector, or corporate environments. Their broader outlook can help introduce global best practices.
- New Networks: External candidates may bring new relationships and networks, which can benefit the institution in areas like fundraising, research partnerships, and global collaboration.

When an External Candidate Might be Chosen:

- The university is undergoing significant transformation, such as structural reorganization, financial restructuring, or a shift in strategic priorities.
- The institution needs to overcome stagnation or tackle deep-rooted issues, requiring an outsider's fresh perspective and innovative thinking.
- The current internal leadership lacks the necessary skills or vision to meet future challenges or expand beyond the institution's traditional scope.

Presidential and Senior Executive succession planning is about investing in leadership development for Vice-Presidents, Deans, and other senior leaders through a multifaceted process that includes internal and external training, professional coaching, and structured goal setting and feedback.

*4.6.1: Report of the Board Investment Committee

Item for: Information

The Investment Committee met on November 18, 2024. At that meeting, the Investment Committee reviewed performance results for the pension plan fund, the endowment fund, and the working capital fund as at September 30, 2024 and received reports from, and questioned investment managers on their performance prior to the annual Open Pension virtual meeting on November 26, 2024.

Global equity markets posted positive returns for the quarter, outperforming the previous quarter, though with higher volatility. Canadian equities outperformed most developed markets. The third quarter of 2024 saw continued rate cuts by major central banks, boosting investor sentiment. Government bond yields declined globally, leading to positive returns for most major fixed income indices in the third quarter. The Committee continues to regularly assess manager performance, with recommendations for changes to managers or asset mix brought to the Board as appropriate, in order to ensure that there is the right mix of management styles, based on the institution's risk appetite, to offset market fluctuations and maximize returns.

As per the agreements, proposed changes to the Responsible Investment Policy were also presented to the Board Investment Committee, reviewed and discussed, and then referred back to Administration.

4.6.2: Internally Restricted Accounts Update

Item for: Approval

Forwarded by: Board Investment Committee

MOTION: That the annual allocation from the internally restricted scholarship Endowments be increased from $650,000 to $780,000 annually.

Rationale:

Within the Endowment Fund there are several general (internally or externally restricted) scholarship and internally restricted general Endowments. The Funds are longstanding, and have benefited from donor participation as well as past government matching programs such as the Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Fund.

Rather than applying a percentage based spending policy to these scholarship accounts, administration has elected to fix the spending amount annually, which makes budgeting simpler and more stable. In 2008/09, administration included in the Operating Budget a total annual spend of $400,000 from the five general Endowments. In 2020/21, the Board of Governors increased the spending to $650,000. In the years since that time, the Endowment’s returns have exceeded expectations, and there have been some significant estate gifts allocated to these internally restricted scholarship endowments, which has increased the balances. Despite the higher spending rate, these five general Endowments have grown by 9% over the past five years through interest recapitalized and gifts.

As a result, administration is proposing that the spending allocation increase starting in fiscal 2025/26 as follows:

Endowment Account #/Name	April 30, 2024 Balance in Capital & Expendable ($000’s)	Proposed future Spending from Account ($000’s)	As a %
60004 – Grad Scholarship	260	12	4.7%
60083 – Grad Scholarship	2,148	112	5.2%
60666 – Grad Scholarship	6,790	380	5.6%
60076 – Undergrad Scholarship	3,616	202	5.6%
60109 – General Endowment	1,461	74	5.0%
Total	14,275	780	5.5%

The amount will be evaluated annually to ensure the capital balance remains sufficient to support the spend.

Re: Faculty and Employees' Retirement Plan Text Update

As discussed at the Board's November 2022 meeting, the University commenced a long-term project to complete a full plan text restatement of both the University of Windsor Retirement Plan for Faculty and Certain Employees (FCO) and the University of Windsor Employees' Retirement Plan (ERP). Both plans are being administered in accordance with all current legislative and regulatory requirements.

The project was planned in two phases for each plan:

Phase I: Straightforward Plan Amendments and Update

- a. Legislative required updates
- b. Collective bargaining related updates

Phase II: More Complex Issues for Amendment and Update

- a. General updates and housekeeping items
- b. Opportunities for improvement and clarity to the plan text

University of Windsor Retirement Plan for Faculty and Certain Employees (FCO):

Phase I and Phase II Update: Administration completed Phase I and Phase II of the project for the FCO. These Phase I and Phase II amendments were approved by the Board of Governors in November 2023 and May 2024, respectively. All required documentation was filed with the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (FSRA) and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) (PBA) and the Income Tax Act (Canada) (ITA). The filings and amendments are in review with the regulators at this time.

FCO Plan Text Restatement: Administration is submitting the completed FCO plan text restatement¹ and is proposing a motion for the Committee's consideration. A copy of the restated FCO plan text effective January 1, 2025 and a copy of a Restatement Comparison Chart have been included in the supporting materials. The previous consolidation of the FCO plan text as at January 1, 2002 is available on our website here. The restated FCO plan text incorporates all amendments approved by the Board of Governors to date, including the Phase I and Phase II amendments, as well as updates for pronouns and EDI considerations and certain other technical, administrative and housekeeping changes (e.g., removing historical provisions that no longer apply). Once approved, the restated FCO plan text will be filed with FSRA and CRA in accordance with the PBA and ITA.

¹ The University's consultant, Mercer, is conducting a final technical review of the restated FCO plan text, but we do not expect any substantive revisions in connection with such review. The restated FCO plan text will also be provided to the trustee, Northern Trust.

University of Windsor Employees' Retirement Plan (ERP) – Update Only:

The Phase I and Phase II ERP amendments as well as the ERP plan text restatement were completed. The amendments and restatement were approved by the Board of Governors in November 2022, May 2023, and November 2023, respectively. All required documentation was filed with FSRA and CRA in accordance with the PBA and ITA. The Phase I and Phase II amendments as well as the restated ERP plan text were all approved by the CRA on February 7, 2024. FSRA has approved both the ERP Phase I and Phase II amendments. The restated ERP plan text is still under review by FSRA.

Additional Items for the FCO and ERP:

During the Phase II reviews of both the FCO and ERP, additional items were identified that may need to be considered during the next round of collective bargaining. Therefore, Administration is proposing a Phase III of the plan text amendments and restatement project to address these items, which will occur post-2025 collective bargaining.

first day of each month thereafter during the life of such Member, ceasing with the payment due for the month in which the Member's death occurs, subject to the terms of the form of pension applicable to such Member pursuant to Section 8 hereof.

Section 7 - Amount of Retirement Pension

7.01 Normal Retirement Pension

A Member retiring on ~~his/her~~the Member's Normal Retirement Date shall receive an annual pension, commencing on ~~his/her~~the Member's Normal Retirement Date and payable in equal monthly instalments, in an amount equal to the Money Purchase Pension plus the Supplementary Pension, if any, calculated as follows:

(1) Money Purchase Pension

The annual amount of Money Purchase Pension is the amount provided from the Member's Money Purchase Component Account using the Actuarial Basis in effect at that time.

For each complete Plan Year after pension commencement, a Member's Money Purchase Pension will be increased (or decreased) by a percentage, ~~calculated and applied as follows:~~

~~(a) — The percentage adjustment~~ which shall be equal to the rate of return earned in the preceding Plan Year by the Pension Fund, less the interest rate used in converting the Money Purchase Component Account at the date of pension commencement into the Money Purchase Pension. The percentage may then be adjusted to take account of the mortality experience of the retirees, using a method as determined by the Retirement Committee on the advice of the Actuary. The percentage adjustment shall be calculated and applied as of July 1st of each Plan Year;

~~(b) — Notwithstanding Section 7.01(1)(a), for Plan Years commencing July 1, 1990, July 1, 1991 and July 1, 1992, a Member's Money~~

~~Purchase Pension shall not be adjusted by a percentage less than 0%;~~

~~(c) For Plan Years commencing after June 30, 1993, a Member's Money Purchase Pension shall not be increased until the Member's Money Purchase Pension otherwise determined under Section 7.01(1) without reference to the restriction in Section 7.01(1)(b), exceeds the Money Purchase Pension determined under Section 7.01(1) with reference to the restriction in Section 7.01(1)(b).~~

(2) Supplementary Pension

The Supplementary Pension is calculated as at the Member's pension commencement date and each Plan Year thereafter and is equal to the excess of the annual income provided by the Minimum Guaranteed Benefit, as calculated under Section 7.01(3), over that of the Money Purchase Pension.

(3) Minimum Guaranteed Benefit

The annual amount of the Minimum Guaranteed Benefit is equal to:

- (h) 1.5% of the Member's Best Average Earnings not in excess of the Average Canada Pension Plan Base; plus
- (i) 2.00% of the Member's Best Average Earnings in excess of the Average Canada Pension Plan Base; multiplied by the Member's Pensionable Service.

The Minimum Guaranteed Benefit will be adjusted on July 1st of each Plan Year after the Member's pension commencement date by a percentage determined as follows:

Percentage Increase Inin Consumer Price Index	Percentage Increase Inin Annual Pension
0% to 2%	100% of the increase in the Consumer Price Index
greater than 2% but less than or equal to 4%	2%
greater than 4% but less than or equal to 8%	50% of the increase in the Consumer Price Index
greater than 8%	4%

If on July 1st of each year, the Member, Spouse and Beneficiary have been in receipt of pension payments for less than 12 months in aggregate, the adjustment to the Minimum Guaranteed Benefit shall be pro-rated over the number of months for which pension payments have been made.

Notwithstanding the above, in the case of a Member whose Minimum Guaranteed Benefit at ~~his/her~~the Member's pension commencement date is restricted to the maximum pension by virtue of Section 7.06, the increase described in this Section 7.01(3) shall not apply until the July 1st of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the pension commenced.

On the basis of a resolution of the Board of Governors, a Member's Minimum Guaranteed Benefit may be adjusted to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index after the Member's pension commencement, provided the total of such increases, and the automatic increases provided above, do not exceed the increases in the Consumer Price Index after the Member's pension commencement.

Board of Governors

4.8.1: 2024-2025 Operating Budget Mid-Year Review

Item for: Information

Forwarded by: Board Resource Allocation Committee

Rationale:

- The process for ongoing monitoring of the Board-approved 2024/2025 operating budget includes a review of the University's spending at the mid-year point, once the final Fall enrolment numbers are in.
- As the mid-year review does not include a proposal to revise the balanced position of the 2024/2025 operating budget but rather provides a projection to year end, the mid-year review is provided for information only.

See attached.

Date: November 26, 2024

Subject: 2024/25 Operating Budget 6-month Review

During each fiscal year, there are two key times when the Operating Budget is reviewed and a projection to year-end is completed. The first, our mid-year review, is completed in November following confirmation of Fall enrolment counts. Below is a mid-year summary of the projection of the Operating Budget to year-end.

Enrolment & Tuition Update

International Tuition Challenges

Like most post-secondary institutions in Ontario, the University of Windsor is recognizing a significant downturn in international student enrolment as IRCC student caps have negatively affected the global perception of Canada as a top destination for international students. Exacerbating the situation is the current geopolitical unrest between Canada and India, historically the country of origin for many UWindsor international students.

Enrolment in our international course-based masters' (ICBM) programs has declined beyond what was budgeted. In Fall 2024 the MEng program enrolled a cohort of 236 students, less than half as many students as Fall 2023 (down 55%) and 33% lower than budget of 350. Science ICBM programs performed slightly better, but are budget by approximately 43 students. Early indicators are pointing to Winter 2025 enrolment forecasts for ICBM programs in Engineering and Science far below budget despite significant recruitment efforts from administrators, especially in the Indian market. On a positive note, the Odette School of Business has been trending to meet Fall and Winter enrolment targets in their MOM program.

These enrolment results are translating into poor international student tuition results against budget. Foreign graduate tuition (including all ICBM programs) is currently forecast at $87.6M, or -$10.8M (-11%) against budget. Foreign undergraduate tuition is also down -$6.1M (-19%) against budget at $25.3M. Unfortunately, administration believes a portion of this variance is due to an issue in the COGNOS enrolment model's assumptions, however a portion relates to slightly lower than expected new student intake numbers.

Domestic Tuition Trending Up

The 2024/25 fiscal year marks the fifth consecutive year of the domestic tuition rate freeze, following a 10% tuition rate reduction mandated by the Ford government in 2019/20. Last year, the anomalies rate adjustment was introduced, allowing Ontario institutions to increase tuition rates for new incoming students in up to 3 programs. UWindsor has received approval for anomaly rate increases in undergraduate Business, undergraduate Engineering, and Law/Dual JD programs.

Fall 2024 domestic undergraduate enrolment continues last year's strong results with preliminary full-time student headcount of 10,756, up by 258 against prior year and 58 over budget. These results are buoyed by a second consecutive first-year intake cohort over 2,900 students, up dramatically from first-year cohort results throughout the COVID-19 pandemic years. This is a positive indicator for future performance as strong first-year cohorts have lasting positive effects on total undergraduate enrolments. Our 101 (Ontario first entry student) results are particularly impressive this Fall at 2,052, up 60 against prior year. These strong enrolments, coupled with the anomaly rate adjustments have resulted in an undergraduate domestic tuition forecast $2.1M above budget at $87.9M.

Domestic graduate results are also slightly up against budget with 1,200 masters' and 272 PhD students enrolled in Fall 2024, leading to a tuition forecast of $11.9M, which is $830,000 over budget.

Overall, we are forecasting 2024/25 total gross tuition revenue of $212.8M which is -$13.9M or -6.2% against budget.

Provincial Government Grants

Postsecondary Education Sustainability Fund

In February 2024, the Ontario government announced a $903M investment over three years through the new Postsecondary Education Sustainability Fund (PSESF). These funds include two distinct components: the "Across-the-Board" component ($700M) is available to all institutions based on 3% inflationary increases per year for 3 years; and the "Top-up" component ($203M) to be allocated using financial metric assessment methodologies. This new funding is temporary in nature and is being treated by most institutions as one-time funding (i.e. not continuing and therefore not base budgeted).

In June 2024, UWindsor received confirmation from the Ministry of the following PSESF funding allocation:

- Across-the-board increases of $2.8M in 2024/25, $4.7M in 2025/26, and $6.7M in 2026/27
- Top-up funding of $6.5M in 2024/25

Administration has been aware of the across-the-board allotment since the February 2024 announcement and has planned to utilize the 2024/25 funds to cover our current year budget shortfall. MCU announced the top-up funding for the current 2024/25 fiscal year in Summer 2024. It is unclear whether we will continue to be eligible for the top-up funding going forward, as MCU has said they plan to change the criteria for allocation each year. All of these one-time funds are being utilized to mitigate our current tuition shortfall.

Efficiency and Accountability Fund

The February 2024 PSESF announcement also included $15M over three years, beginning in 2024/25, through a new Efficiency and Accountability Fund (EAF) to help support third-party reviews that will identify actions institutions can take to drive long-term cost savings and positive outcomes for students and communities. Institutions receiving the PSESF top-up funding, including UWindsor, will be required to undertake third-party reviews through the EAF. As such, UWindsor has received $500,000 EAF funding in 2024/25. These funds are being budgeted as Strategic Investment Funds and are being allocated to fund the cost of the third-party reviews, currently underway.

International Student Recovery

The International Student Recovery (ISR) effectively reduces the Provincial Operating Grant by $750.00 for every international student. As part of our 6-month review adjustments, we are reducing our ISR obligation by $200,000 based on our current forecast for international student enrolments.

Funding the Tuition Shortfall for the Current Year (2024/25)

Extraordinary Enrolment Reserve

Starting in 2022/23, UWindsor offered additional cohorts of select ICBM programs to accommodate the significant number of international students who had deferred their acceptance into programs during the COVID-19 pandemic. This created a tuition revenue 'bubble' where revenue expectations exceeded 'normal' tuition revenue trends. This extra tuition was held in the Extraordinary Enrolment Reserve (EER) and used to enhance international student initiatives at the institution and, more specifically, in Faculties where extra tuition was generated. After two years of budgeting EER, the fund was sunset ahead of 2024/25. However, residual carryover of Extraordinary Enrolment Reserves remains with $2.5M utilized now to offset the current international tuition shortfall.

Enrolment Contingency Reserve

The Enrolment Contingency Reserve (ECR) has been maintained as a risk mitigation strategy (in effect, an allowance) for a fifth consecutive year since it was first introduced during the COVID-19 pandemic. In 2024/25 the ECR was funded at $6M ($2M base plus $4M one-time reserves), or about 2.6% of the gross tuition revenue budget. Administration is recommending utilizing $4M in funding from the ECR to offset a portion of the international tuition shortfall. The remaining $2M reserve will be maintained into the Winter 2025 semester to be reconciled against any future requirement following the 9-month budget review, and/or carried forward for future years.

Faculty of Engineering Contribution

Tuition revenue for the Faculty of Engineering is being forecast -$8.5M or -12.2% below budget in 2024/25 because of the dramatic decreases in MEng program enrolment outlined above. This is the largest gap in terms of dollars and as a percent of budget of all the faculties. Administration is requesting all Faculties to return budget equivalent to an amount greater than 10% of their actual-to-budget variance as contribution towards offsetting institutional tuition shortfall, given they are realizing savings on teaching because of the much smaller than typical cohort sizes. For the Faculty of Engineering, this represents a claw back of 2.2% of their tuition budget, or $1.5M.

International Recruitment Partner Adjustment

We are forecasting a decrease in costs of recruiting international students based on decreased international enrolment levels and, therefore, will adjust international recruitment costs down by $500,000 at the 6-month review.

Investment Income

Working capital balances and interest rates available to the University in short-term deposit products have been higher this year than planned. An adjustment of $463K is included at the 6-month budget review to balance the budget and will be further reconciled at the 9-month review and year end.

Required Investments

Other required investments include:

- EPICentre Transition – the institution is required to fund one-time obligations of $293,000 associated with temporarily pausing and transitioning the EPICentre operations.
- Foreign Exchange – most library eResources are purchased in US dollars and recent increases in the foreign exchange rate has meant we are planning increases of approximately $400,000 to cover these costs.
- Graduate Scholarships – we anticipate overspending of approximately $350,000 for operating budget funded graduate scholarships. Some changes to eligibility requirements have been implemented to mitigate potential future overspending on graduate scholarships.
- Insurance Premiums – we are forecasting overspending of $300,000 on our insurance premiums as our Currie rates and deductibles have increased dramatically over the past 3 years.
- Legal Fees – spending on legal costs is forecast to exceed budget by $395,000.

Balanced Budget

These are challenging financial times for the University of Windsor. Administration is taking significant action to address international tuition revenue shortfalls and has applied the PSESF across-the-board funding to balance the institutional operating budget. Efficiency and cost-cutting planning is taking place to right-size the operating budget ahead of the 2025/26 fiscal year with significant changes required on many fronts. The executive leadership team continues to closely monitor geo-political and international enrolment risks.

Territorial Acknowledgment

We recognize and respect that we are situated on land and surrounded by waters that Indigenous Peoples have long inhabited. These communities have traversed these lands since time immemorial. We are located within the territory covered by the Wampum Treaties, historic agreements for shared stewardship of resources and the fostering of enduring relationships around the Great Lakes, made between the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lenape, and allied Nations.

We also acknowledge that the Wampum Treaties may not cover some of the lands where our University resides and are recognized by the Three Fires Confederacy to be unceded territories. These lands continue to hold deep significance for Indigenous Peoples, who have maintained their connection to the land over generations.

We recognize the presence and historical significance of the Three Fires Confederacy of First Nations, which includes the Ojibwa, the Odawa, the Potawatomi, and the Huron/Wendat Peoples. Our commitment extends to honouring Indigenous Peoples, their history and culture and engaging respectfully and constructively with all First Nations, Inuit, and Métis communities as we move forward.

As outlined in the strategic priority section Advancing the Journey toward Truth and Reconciliation, a consultative process is underway to develop a new Land Acknowledgment for the University. We continue to work with the Indigenous Education Council to review and enhance this Territorial Acknowledgement to ensure it accurately reflects our shared history and commitment to reconciliation and respectful relationships.

Message from the Provost and Vice-President, Academic

It is with a sense of optimism and pride that I endorse the launch of our institutional Strategic Enrolment Management plan, a key component of realizing the promise of our Aspire strategic plan. The product of broad consultation over the last 14+ months, this plan is not merely a road map; it is a testament to the University of Windsor's commitment to academic excellence, student success, and a sustainable and prosperous future. Once implemented, it will play a critical role in shaping the destiny of our institution.

The vision for enrolment management articulated here is not simply about admitting and enrolling more students. It involves achieving a forward-looking and strategic mix among levels (graduate and undergraduate), places of origin (domestic and international), and areas of study. Crucially, it involves thinking about how to improve our retention of students already admitted. It serves us little if we enrol many only to see some significant number not persist to graduation. Hence this plan's attention to a broad and collaborative space of overlap with other offices and entities on campus. The plan addresses enhancements to our central and faculty-driven advising; imagines employing state-of-the-art technology for assisting students in academic difficulty; and sets forth a holistic view of student success in which the entire university becomes engaged.

This plan is designed to propel us towards achieving our overarching goals as an anchor institution in our region. It acknowledges our reality as an enrolment-dependent institution. It addresses this challenge head-on with strategic, data-informed decisions that aim to enhance our academic offerings, attract and retain a diverse and global student body, and ensure their success from admission to graduation and beyond. It aligns with our values of inclusivity, innovation, and impact, aiming to enhance our overall student experience and outcomes. By strategically managing our enrolment, we will ensure the long-term sustainability and success of our university.

This is not just a plan for enrolment management; it is a blueprint for our future as a leading institution of higher learning. It demands our best efforts, our bold ideas, and our unwavering commitment.

Message from the Associate Vice-President, Enrolment

Dear members of the University of Windsor Community,

I'm delighted to present the University of Windsor's Strategic Enrolment Management (SEM) Plan, a comprehensive road map that reflects our dedication to fostering student success through a holistic approach. This plan has been meticulously developed over the past year within the framework of Aspire, with the active engagement of over 200 colleagues.

In crafting this institutional-wide strategy, we have remained steadfast in our adherence to the principles of SEM, ensuring that our approach is intentional, practical, data-driven, and student-focused. SEM goes beyond mere recruitment enhancement; it is a multifaceted strategy to nurture every aspect of student life and academic journey. It's about fostering a shared responsibility and collaborative culture to create an environment where every student can flourish.

At the core of SEM lies the active participation and seamless integration of various stakeholders across our university community. From senior administrators to faculty members, academic governance to those responsible for implementing strategic initiatives, each plays a pivotal role in shaping and executing our enrolment strategies. Moving forward, I eagerly anticipate collaborating with colleagues to develop implementation plans and provide updates on our progress. I appreciate the time and passion colleagues have put into creating the plan.

As we embark on this journey, let us fully embrace the principles of SEM, working together to cultivate an environment where every student can thrive academically, personally, and professionally.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to you for your unwavering dedication to the University of Windsor and the principles of SEM. Together, we will pave the way for a future where student success is not merely a goal but a reality for all.

Our Mission

To empower positive change through regionally and globally engaged inquiry, learning, scholarship, creation, and research.

Our Vision

As a locally engaged, globally connected institution, the University of Windsor will enable people to transform their circumstances. As partners, leaders, and learners, we will engage in impactful research, relevant teaching, creative endeavours, and inclusive relationship building to foster positive change.

Aspiring for Student Success

The University of Windsor's strategic plan "Aspire: Together for Tomorrow" aims to drive positive global change through engaged learning and research. It emphasizes impactful research, truth and reconciliation, local and global partnerships, and equity, diversity, and inclusion. Strategic Enrolment Management (SEM), as a strategic component of institutional planning, supports this by aligning enrolment with academic missions, enhancing student-centric approaches, adapting to demographic changes (Government of Ontario, 2024), and integrating academic, financial, and student services across the entire student life-cycle.

This SEM Plan (2024-29) focuses on diversifying the student body, improving student experiences, and promoting an inclusive environment – all aligning with the "Aspire" goals, which can be demonstrated by the five strategic opportunities within the plan, including:

- Fostering an enhanced "student-first" experience is aligned with the university's strategic focus on personalized support, academic excellence, and comprehensive student success.
- Deepening domestic recruitment within the local area (Essex, Lambton, and Kent Counties), focusing on expansion within the Southwestern, Central and Toronto areas, engaging learners earlier, and striving to increase student diversity and accessibility, reflecting the global community's engagement.
- Implementing a holistic advising model across the institution to enrich the learner experience, aiming to elevate retention and graduation rates by committing to deliver tailored attention and support, ensuring every student benefits from a comprehensive and cohesive educational journey.
- Broadening enrolment opportunities by enhancing transfer enrolment to contribute to the university's inclusive environment, acknowledging diverse educational backgrounds and promoting a supportive and equitable learning community.
- Working towards adopting an early alert system to foster student success by proactively addressing academic and personal challenges, in line with the focus on high-quality student experiences to enhance retention and graduation rates.

If resourced, executed, monitored and refined as necessary, this SEM Plan will support the institution's academic mandate and financial success.

Executive Summary

The University of Windsor's Strategic Enrolment Plan (2024-2029), aptly titled "Aspire for Student Success," serves as a forward-looking blueprint aimed at enhancing the university's enrolment strategy with a keen focus on academic excellence, student success, and institutional sustainability. This ambitious plan, born out of widespread consultation within the university community, articulates a vision for the future that is both optimistic and deeply rooted in the university's commitment to playing a pivotal role in the educational and socio-economic landscape.

Central to the plan is a holistic approach to enrolment management that extends beyond mere numbers. It seeks to strategically balance the composition of the student body across various demographics, including the level of study, geographic origin, and fields of academic interest while prioritizing improvements in retention rates to ensure successful student progression to graduation. The document highlights the need for enhanced support systems, including refined advising services and the use of technology to identify and assist students facing academic challenges.

The plan aligns with the university's established role as an anchor institution in the community, emphasizing strategic decisions that enhance academic offerings, attract and retain a diverse student body, and foster a nurturing environment supporting student success from admission through graduation.

A collaborative effort is emphasized as essential for the implementation of the plan, calling on the collective efforts of university administrators, faculty, governance bodies, and those tasked with the execution of strategic initiatives. It underscores a shared commitment to creating an environment that supports student thriving, highlighting the critical role of inclusivity, innovation, and impact in achieving these goals.

The Strategic Enrolment Plan sets a comprehensive framework for the University of Windsor's journey towards realizing its aspirations over the next five years. Glossary of Terms

Antecedents For Success:

Required elements for implementation efforts to be successful (e.g., funding, staffing, technology, faculty buy-in, leadership support, time to implement).

Attrition:

The number of students who might not complete their courses and leave the school before graduating. It helps us track how many students face challenges such as tough classes, financial burdens, personal issues, or not feeling part of the school community.

Baseline:

The initial data set of student enrolment, crucial for planning, is the most current at the time of collection and serves as a reference point for comparing future enrolments, identifying trends, and setting strategic goals.

Hybrid Courses:

An instructional method where the curriculum is designed intentionally to integrate the affordances of in-person and online learning experiences. In-person teaching time in the hybrid method is reduced but not eliminated, with the balance of learning being facilitated asynchronously or synchronously through digital/web-based technologies or offline learning opportunities. Typically, 50%-80% of the total course learning hours are completed in online and asynchronous formats in hybrid courses (Policy on Course Modalities; Senate).

Critical Path to Implementation:

Implementation details describing the strategy, timelines, lead responsibility assignments, KPIs, effectiveness measures, and antecedents for successful implementation.

Key Performance Indicators:

Specific measures used to evaluate how effectively an organization is achieving its main objectives. KPIs help us track progress, pinpoint areas for improvement, and ensure that our goals are met efficiently.

Enrolment Unit:

This represents the number of semesters students attend in an academic year. For instance, attending in Fall and Winter equals two enrolment units, while attending Spring, Fall, and Winter equals three. This measure helps track how many terms students are in school each year.

Prior Learning Assessment:

Assessment of credit earned through alternative means, such as work or military experience.

Persistence:

A measure of how many students continue their studies from one year to the next. It shows us how well our university is doing at helping students stay on track and feel supported as they work toward completing their degree.

Retention:

The percentage of full-time, first year students who entered into a first-entry undergraduate program who continued at the university the next fall within the same or a different program.

Strategic Enrolment Management:

A comprehensive process designed to achieve and maintain the optimum recruitment, retention, and attainment of students where "optimum" is defined within the academic context of the institution (Dolence, 1993).

Strategic Opportunities: Opportunities that the University has identified as having the potential to achieve desired enrolment, retention, and completion outcomes.

Yield Rate: The number of students who registered as a percentage of offers made.

Introduction

STRATEGIC ENROLMENT MANAGEMENT PRIMER

Strategic enrolment management (SEM) in Canadian higher education is “a comprehensive process designed to achieve and maintain the optimum recruitment, retention, and attainment of students where the “optimum” is defined within the academic context of the institution” (Dolence, 1993, 1997). At its core, SEM intertwines the art of marketing, the rigour of recruitment, and the finesse of retention tactics, all underpinned by robust data analysis and research. This systematic approach is not just a procedural necessity but a comprehensive strategy to augment the overall quality of the student experience.

Within Canada’s diverse educational landscape, SEM is pivotal in steering institutions toward achieving balanced and sustainable enrolment, retention, and graduation metrics that align with their unique missions and economic stability. The strategy spans a gamut of activities, including but not limited to personalized student recruitment campaigns, adaptive admissions policies, strategic financial aid programs, comprehensive student support services, and the continuous development of curricula and advising services.

Facing demographic changes (Government of Ontario, 2024), heightened global competition for students, and variable funding structures, Canadian higher education institutions adapt SEM methodologies to navigate these complexities, including serving a diverse student population and considering their academic and cultural backgrounds.

The application of SEM in Canada is characterized by data-centric strategic planning, leveraging market research, and predictive analytics to discern shifts in demographic trends and their implications for student behaviour and enrolment patterns. Institutions employ this intelligence to customize their academic offerings and outreach initiatives to attract and retain a vibrant student body.

Moreover, Canadian SEM efforts are inclusive of initiatives that support student achievements from admission through to graduation. This inclusive approach necessitates collaboration across the institutional spectrum, harmonizing the contributions of admissions, academic departments, student services, and alumni networks to foster a cohesive and supportive educational environment.

In essence, SEM in Canadian higher education represents a concerted effort to reconcile the institution’s objectives with the evolving needs of students and the dynamics of the higher education marketplace, ensuring financial prudence while upholding academic excellence and catering to the heterogeneity of the student community.

Planning Background

PLANNING PROCESS

The SEM Plan's development occurred over approximately 14 months, guided by an Advisory Committee (Appendix 1), Office of Enrolment Management, and Dr. Jim Black, President and CEO of SEM Works, a top higher education student recruitment and retention consulting firm. Together, they ensured efficiency, alignment with university goals, stakeholder involvement, and rigorous evaluation, enhancing the quality and impact of our SEM strategy.

The SEM Plan has been informed by the contribution of over 200 campus community members, including staff, students, faculty, administration, and senior leadership, and involved seven different project elements, including:

A. Market Assessment

A detailed analysis of the University of Windsor's historical enrolment trends, demographic shifts (Government of Ontario, 2024), and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on education. It examined undergraduate and graduate enrolment trends, focusing on the rise in international student numbers, and delved into the changing job market in Ontario, highlighting sectors with growing and declining employment opportunities.

The assessment also explored the competitive landscape of higher education in Ontario, analyzing enrolment trends in two-year colleges and their effects on the University of Windsor. It assessed current and future demands for academic programs, aligning them with employment trends and student preferences, and concludes with key findings and strategic recommendations for the university's future planning.

B. Performance Analysis

Before developing a new SEM Plan, uncovering lessons learned from the past was prudent, including strengths and weaknesses associated with implementing the 2016-19 SEM Plan.

It included reviewing historical enrolment data, institutional responses, and stakeholder feedback. The analysis identified mixed progress and performance due to the pandemic and other factors. Positive results were noted in graduate enrolment, particularly in master's programs in 2020 and 2021 and course-based graduate programs. Challenges were observed in undergraduate outcomes, including retention rates and GTA recruitment, with no significant growth in transfer or international students. Improvements in targeted communications, website, and social media were observed. Still, issues like delayed hiring of a GTA recruiter, credit recognition problems, inconsistent advising, lack of a structured implementation plan nor a process for annual review and reporting, and limited and limited program innovation impacted overall goal achievement.

C. Program Marketing Scorecard

Developing the Program Marketing Scorecard provides a data-driven approach to categorizing the University of Windsor's academic programs into three tiers based on market demand and enrolment potential. This categorization enables informed decision-making, aligning program promotion with market demand and institutional priorities and can help effectively allocate marketing resources, focusing efforts on programs with high demand and potential for growth.

Using the developed scorecard, all academic programs were evaluated and assigned to Tier 1 (high demand and prestige), Tier 2 (popular but less prestigious), or Tier 3 (lower demand). The scorecard, which considers application numbers, program capacity, and other factors, guides marketing investment decisions.

D. Stakeholder Interviews

Insights from senior leaders, faculty leaders, and strategy owners at the University of Windsor were gathered to inform the SEM

Plan's development. Senior leaders contributed institutional aspirations and strategic priorities, while faculty leaders discussed specific enrolment goals and environmental challenges. Strategy owners, individuals formerly tasked to lead actions outlined in the previous SEM Plan, provided insights on recent performances and future enrolment prospects. These contributions were essential in aligning the SEM Plan with the broader institutional goals with strategic opportunities shared and prioritized at a subsequent enrolment visioning workshop under the guidance of the SEM Plan Advisory Committee.

E. Enrolment Goal Setting

The University of Windsor, as an anchor institution with the aspirations of the community at its heart, is strategically poised to navigate its enrolment trajectory, capitalizing on burgeoning sectors such as the new battery plant, hospital, bridge project, agricultural greenhouse, and the establishment of a national urban park, coupled with the growing need for qualified educators and health professionals.

The enrolment goal-setting initiative, spearheaded by the deans and faculty representatives, reinforced our institution's role as a pivotal community pillar, echoing our commitment to the community's aspirations. The essence of accessibility was at the forefront, ensuring open opportunities for all who pursue knowledge and advancement, thereby reinforcing the relevance of our academic offerings in the rapidly changing global milieu. We are equally intent on cultivating our diverse and international presence, acknowledging that many perspectives are the bedrock of innovation and distinction.

In this strategic process, we established clear and ambitious enrolment targets that resonate with our mission to be an accessible, pertinent, and internationally connected university, deeply entwined with the community's ambitions.

The goal-setting exercise was thorough and analytically driven, encompassing four foundational elements: the institution's aspirations, data intelligence, assessment of institutional capacity, and an understanding of internal and external influences. The deans and faculty representatives engaged deeply with crucial questions concerning the strategic direction for enrolment expansion, necessary investments, prioritization of student demographics to diversify our enrolment portfolio, and ascertaining the university's optimal scale.

F. Enrolment Visioning Workshop

Built upon the goal-setting initiatives, participants validated early findings and discussed the ideal mix of learners by degree level and special populations for targeted enrolment growth. They considered the optimal blend of credentials (e.g., certificates and micro-credentials), programs, instructional modalities (e.g., online, HyFlex, etc.), and support services needed for future learners (e.g., one-stop services, enhanced international supports, and holistic advising). Key areas identified for further development by strategy teams included re-imagining student experiences and success, re-evaluating academic advising and K-12 outreach, early identification of students at risk of non-completing, increasing college transfer enrolments, expanding undergraduate enrolment specifically beyond local areas (e.g., outside Essex, Lambton, and Kent Counties), and enhancing strategic enrolment intelligence.

G. Strategy Development

Six strategic opportunity-focused teams were established, each co-led by faculty and administrative leaders, including members from across the institution. These teams evaluated existing strategies and identified gaps and opportunities, working to define desired outcomes, measurable metrics, responsible parties, and timelines for the next five years. The AVP-Enrolment Management reviewed the strategies identified and refined with input from the SEM Plan Advisory and the University's Strategic Enrolment Executive committees. Criteria for inclusion were based on insights from enrolment planning workshops, alignment with institutional goals, data evidence, resource requirements, the potential impact on enrolment metrics, and stakeholder input.

Enrolment Context

The University of Windsor conducted a market assessment as part of its SEM Plan development, revealing several key trends. Since the launch of the most recent SEM Plan in 2017, there has been a steady increase in both undergraduate and graduate enrolments, particularly among international students in cohort-based graduate programs.

The assessment highlighted the impact of COVID-19 on enrolment patterns. It emphasized the need for a comprehensive student success approach to improve retention and graduation rates, especially as UWindsor experiences a higher attrition rate than most four-year schools (Institutional Consortium for Student Retention Survey (CSRDE)). It also identified significant growth in Ontario colleges, including St. Clair College, growing by 65.8%, suggesting that transfers, especially from local colleges, could be an area for growth, especially by developing articulation agreements around in-demand programs, rapid transfer credit evaluations, competitive credit awarding practices, a streamlined admissions process (e.g., guaranteed admissions with a required number of hours earned and marks), and proactive recruitment and marketing efforts. The report stressed the importance of adapting to diverse student needs and backgrounds, especially outside the local Essex, Lambton, and Kent region, to increase enrolment, indicating that the University of Windsor could achieve enrolment recovery with the suitable investments, strategies, and agility to implement the SEM Plan effectively.

Enrolment Goals

INSTITUTIONAL ENROLMENT

Contributors to the development of the SEM Plan have recommended that an ideal size for the University of Windsor is between 18,000 and 20,000 students. This optimal composition includes 70% undergraduate students, with 30% enrolled in graduate programs.

They also advised that the university maintain a balance of 70% domestic students to 30% international students, emphasizing the importance of not increasing the international student proportion or overall size but enhancing its diversity in terms of countries of origin and degree levels offered.

As of Fall 2023, the university’s enrolment stood at 17,994 students, aligning closely with these recommendations. As the Office of Institutional Analysis reported, approximately 67% of these students were enrolled in undergraduate programs covering both full-time and part-time learners.

Undergraduate

In the next five years, undergraduate enrolment directly from high school is anticipated to expand from approximately 2,000 learners to nearly 2,500, with this growth primarily driven by new program innovations (e.g., expansion of co-op in FAHSS, new mechatronics and computer engineering programs) supported by targeted recruitment efforts in Southwestern Ontario and the Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area (GTHA).

In the coming five years, we foresee a gentle uptick in the number of undergraduate students transferring from colleges or other universities, with projections suggesting a gradual rise from 235 to around 270 annually. Concurrently, we anticipate the count of international undergraduate enrollees to remain steady.

Figure 5: Projected Distribution of Ontario Undergraduate High School Applications by Regional Offices for School Boards Over the Next Five Years.

In Ontario, high schools are organized under local school boards, which fall under the jurisdiction of six regional offices of the Ministry of Education. These regions include Central (covering areas like Halton, Peel, and York), West (including Elgin, Hamilton, Huron, Middlesex, Essex, Lambton, and Kent counties), East (encompassing Durham and Ottawa-Carleton), Northeast (such as Sudbury-North Bay), Northwest (e.g., Thunder Bay), and Toronto.

For strategic purposes in the SEM Plan, the "West" region is subdivided into two sections: "West," which includes Hamilton/Wentworth, Middlesex, Waterloo, and Wellington, and "West – Local," which is comprised of Essex, Kent, and Lambton counties. This subdivision is illustrated in the accompanying map (Figure 5).

The decision to segment the "West" region further was informed by feedback during the development of the SEM Plan, where stakeholders identified a significant opportunity to strengthen our presence in the local market while also attracting more learners from broader Western Ontario, situated approximately 200 – 300 km from the University of Windsor.

Graduate

In the upcoming five years, a projected decrease in new enrolments for master's programs is anticipated, mainly attributed to a strategic reduction in seats for international course-based graduate programs in engineering and business. Nonetheless, this trend is expected to be partially offset by several new initiatives: the revision of the MBA for Managers of Professionals program, the introduction of an Electric Vehicle stream as a replacement for the Master of Engineering Automotive program, the expansion of the Master of Nursing Practitioner program, repositioning the existing course-based Sport Management and Leadership graduate program to attract a more diverse, international student body, and the creation of a new Master of Data Science program.

Course-Based Masters encompasses programs such as Master of Management (Business), Master of Engineering, Master of Medical Biotechnology, Master of Actuarial Science, Master of Applied Computing, and Master of Applied Economics and Policy (Science).

The enrolment mixture between domestic and international graduate learners is also expected to change during the SEM Plan's life-cycle, with international learners comprising 80% of our master's program enrolment in 2028-29, down from 82% in 2023-24.

This plan acknowledges the challenges in predicting enrolment for international cohort-based graduate programs due to external influences. Key factors impacting these forecasts within the Canadian context include changing visa and immigration policies, global economic conditions, international relations, health crises like pandemics, and the competitive landscape of global higher education. In response, we adopt a flexible strategy, continuously monitoring these variables and adjusting our recruitment and student support approaches. This ensures our institution remains adaptable and attractive to international students amid the unpredictable global environment.

PhD

Forecasting PhD enrolment accurately is a nuanced task, given these programs' specialized and resource-intensive nature. The variability in faculty expertise, funding sources, and unique research opportunities significantly impacts the predictability of enrolment figures. Additionally, the choices of prospective PhD students are heavily influenced by detailed aspects like faculty reputation and research alignment, further complicating trend predictions. Consequently, the SEM Plan recommends maintaining steady PhD enrolment levels over the next five years, acknowledging these complexities.

The growth of PhD enrolment is expected to unfold naturally as new faculty members join and will likely vary across disciplines. However, accurately predicting and incorporating these variations into the SEMP is challenging. Supporting expansion is crucial for our research endeavours, spearheaded by individual faculty members' unique research, scholarly, and creative pursuits. These activities are essential for achieving our collective objectives and enriching our academic investigations' scope and depth.

International Diversification

In Fall 2023, more than 55% of the institution’s international applications were from China and India. The SEM Plan aims to redistribute 17% of international applications from these two countries to various others by Fall 2028 to diversify its student body and mitigate enrolment risks. This shift will be achieved through enhanced marketing and recruitment efforts in countries highlighted in Canada’s International Education Strategy (2019 – 2024), such as Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Vietnam, Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand, and Türkiye and other countries, thereby reducing over-reliance on a few regions.

Retention

Our institution acknowledges facing higher attrition and lower persistence rates than our peers, affecting our ability to retain undergraduate students year-over-year until their degree completion.

Research indicates that students leave for various reasons, including academic hurdles, financial constraints, personal matters, or dissatisfaction with their university experience (Academica Group, 2023). The enrolment priorities and strategic opportunities outlined in the SEM Plan aim to enhance undergraduate retention from the current 75% rate (where one in four first-year undergraduate students does not continue to graduate). However, quantifying the impact of these student success-focused practices on overall enrolment during the plan’s lifespan is challenging. Therefore, we have developed three scenarios:

Scenario A – Status Quo: Maintaining current practices without changes.

Scenario B – Conservative Improvement: This scenario follows Scenario A but includes a consistent 0.5% annual increase in the undergraduate retention rate over the next five years (2023/24: +0.5%; 2024/25: +0.5%; 2025/26: +0.5%; 2026/27: +0.5%; and 2027/28: +0.5%).

Scenario C – Aspirational Goal: Building on Scenario A, this scenario aims for an undergraduate retention rate increase of 0.5% for the first two years, followed by a 1% increase annually for the subsequent three years (2023/24: +0.5%; 2024/25: +0.5%; 2025/26: +1%; 2026/27: +1%; and 2027/28: +1%).

Priority Student Populations

Developing and executing specific strategies is crucial to support priority student groups effectively. These include targeted recruitment efforts, tailored support services, and dedicated retention programs uniquely designed for each group. The aim is to create a student experience that increases enrolment and fosters academic achievement and success.

The SEM Plan places Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion as a central tenet to advancing student enrollment at the University of Windsor by recognizing not only the need to invest in recruitment efforts that continue to diversify our student representation at the University of Windsor but to ensure that students feel welcomed, valued and excited to participate in campus life. The Plan also acknowledges existing and persisting systemic inequalities. It works towards the University's goals that ensure fair access and treatment, thereby fostering an environment where diverse student perspectives are valued and where we actively work towards ensuring that we meet diverse students' multi-faceted needs.

The SEM Plan highlights the University's commitment to embracing and nurturing the rich diversity on our campus by focusing on four key student groups, each of which offers unique opportunities for enriching our academic community and fostering success:

- 1. Indigenous Students: Recognizing the importance of inclusivity and cultural heritage, the University is dedicated to supporting Indigenous students through targeted programs and services that honour their identities and traditions.
- 2. Black Students: The University is committed to enhancing the educational experience for Black students, providing a supportive environment that celebrates diversity and promotes academic and personal growth.
- 3. Students Transferring from Colleges: The University values the diverse perspectives and experiences that transfer students bring and is committed to facilitating smooth transitions for those joining us from college.
- 4. Students from Southwest Ontario: Acknowledging our roots and the local community, the University seeks to attract and support students from Southwest Ontario, ensuring that our campus reflects the vibrant diversity of the region.

Enrolment Goals (Faculty-specific)

The faculty-specific enrolment goals for 2024-2029 are integral components that collectively form the institutional enrolment objectives. Each faculty's enrolment plan, with its distinct focus and strategies, contributes to the broader university's targets. These faculty-level plans, when aggregated, embody the University's holistic approach to enrolment, ensuring that the institution's overarching objectives are met through each faculty's concerted efforts and tailored strategies. This cohesive structure demonstrates how the detailed, faculty-specific enrolment opportunities and goals roll up to establish and support the comprehensive enrolment ambitions of the university.

Total Enrolments

Enrolment management often focuses on the number of new students starting in traditional fall terms, inadvertently overlooking those who continue or begin at different times. To address this, we show total enrolment utilizing 'Enrolment Units' as a comprehensive measure. This system counts the number of terms each student is enrolled in during an academic year, with a single term equating to one unit. This approach allows for a more accurate tracking and assessment of student engagement throughout the entire year, not just during peak intake periods.

Enrolment Assumptions

Future enrolment is influenced by several factors: ongoing pandemic effects on student success and retention, demographic shifts in Ontario (Government of Ontario, 2024), particularly in Southwest Ontario, changing immigration policies, and a high unemployment rate in Windsor. Significant growth in Ontario's colleges and increased high school applications to universities are notable trends. Government policies, such as funding for nursing seats and the rise in online and distance education, could boost enrolments. The practical implementation of previous and future enrolment strategies, especially those aligned with faculty priorities and identified strategic opportunities, is crucial for achieving these objectives.

Strategic Opportunities

During the enrolment visioning process, five vital strategic opportunities emerged, each shaped by insights gained from a comprehensive market assessment, performance reviews, the creation of program marketing scorecards, stakeholder interviews, setting enrolment targets, and conducting an enrolment visioning workshop. For each opportunity, specific Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) and measures of effectiveness have been pinpointed. Corresponding strategies are planned to be crafted and executed, which, if accomplished effectively, are expected to fulfill the enrolment objectives of the institution and its faculties.

Expanding Domestic Undergraduate Recruitment

Addressing the decline in the local high school student population, the university is seizing a strategic opportunity to broaden its reach and appeal. By intensifying recruitment and marketing efforts, the focus is on capturing a larger market share beyond the Windsor-Essex region. This shift represents a significant strategic opportunity for the university to tap into a wider pool of potential students, especially in western and central Ontario. Engaging learners earlier in their educational journey and providing compelling reasons for local students to study close to home are critical aspects of this strategy. This approach aims to counteract demographic declines and positions the university to attract a diverse and robust domestic undergraduate population, aligning with its broader growth and regional impact goals.

Strategic Opportunity: Expand domestic undergraduate enrolment
KPI: To increase the number of domestic undergraduate learners at UWindsor
Effectiveness Measures	Tracking changes in applications and enrolment from non-local areas vs. local* areas
	Measuring the level of engagement from K-12 students (by grade) in university initiatives, such as in-class workshops, open days, or school visits.
	Analyzing market share in targeted non-local regions compared to previous years.
	The percentage of local* high school graduates who choose to enrol at the university vs elsewhere.
	The cost-effectiveness of local* and non-local recruitment strategies.
	The retention rates of non-local students compared to local* students.

* Local defined as originating from Essex, Lambton, and Kent Counties.

Strategies

1. Commence at an earlier age: Develop and manage the delivery of top-notch programs for school engagement, both on and off-campus.
2. Tailor messaging and resources for critical markets and communities.
3. Enhance storytelling efforts.
4. Establish a centralized hub for services and information.
5. Review scholarship programs and adjust them to serve critical markets and programs better (using program marketing scorecard report).
6. Formalize a communications strategy tailored by student group for engaging with prospective applicants.
7. Explore the development of bridging programs to support under-served learners with equity needs.
8. Investigate the implementation of dual credit initiatives.

A Student-First Experience

The pandemic's impact has been significant, intertwining mental health, financial challenges, and essential needs closely with academic achievement. Notably, more than one in five students at UWindsor has a self-reported disability or impairment (OUAC, 2024). Surveys reveal that 30% of first-year and graduating students rate their experience as fair or poor, and an equal percentage of final-year students would not choose UWindsor if given another chance (NSSE, 2023). This is a concerning trend in the context of strategic enrolment management, which prioritizes student success and completion.

The "Aspire" Strategic Plan addresses challenges by fostering student diversity and accessibility, improving the overall student experience, providing personalized attention and support, ensuring high-quality experiences, and cultivating a supportive, equitable learning environment. At the same time, SEM planning workshop participants highlighted the need for more adaptable and convenient services, enhanced online support, a culture centred on service, one-stop services, extended service hours, and improved mental health and international student support, aligning with the preferences and needs of future students.

These initiatives underscore a strategic shift towards an opportunity to provide a "student-first" experience. This approach moves away from staff-centric decision-making and isolated operational practices, both physically and digitally. It emphasizes tailored communication, standardized recruitment responsibilities, and a unified marketing approach to enhance the student experience at UWindsor.

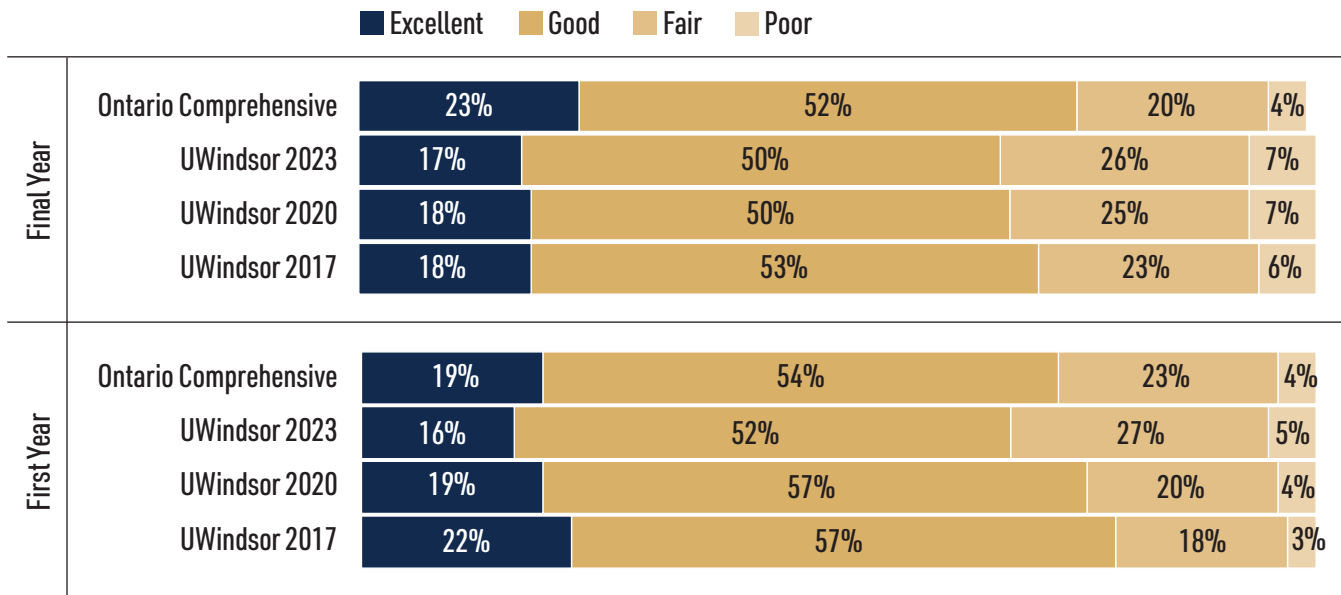

Strategic Opportunity: A Student-First Experience

KPI: The proportion of students who rate their overall educational experience at UWindsor as either Excellent or Good, according to the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), surpasses the average rating of comparable Ontario Comprehensive institutions.

Effectiveness Measures

- Positive feedback from prospective students regarding clarity and helpfulness of information.
- Increased student satisfaction with communication processes, measured through surveys.
- Reduction in the time students spend seeking help across different departments.
- Improved engagement metrics (e.g., open rates, click-through rates) for targeted communications and increased conversion rates from inquiries to applications.
- Higher student retention and progression rates and positive student feedback on the registration process's relevance to their goals.
- Improved student satisfaction with academic advising and demonstrable impact of personalized advising on student success metrics (e.g., GPA improvement, successful graduation rates, etc.).

Comparison of Student Evaluations of Educational Experience at the University of Windsor from 2017, 2020, and 2023, Against Ontario Comprehensive Averages, Based on the National Survey of Student Engagement 2023

Strategies

1. Develop a comprehensive prospective student communications plan tailored to individual student populations.
2. Utilize UWinsite Engage to streamline and unify all communication channels.
3. Establish a centralized "one-stop" service centre for student support.
4. Define clear responsibilities for creating effective prospective graduate student communications.
5. Capture and nurture student goals (academic and career) during initial and ongoing registration processes.
6. Empower advisors with access to student goals for personalized guidance.
7. Create a comprehensive and accessible student profile to enhance advisor support.

Comprehensive Advising for Student Retention

Enhancing student retention is critical to the University of Windsor's enrolment success. While certain faculties have highlighted student retention as a crucial focus, this must become a priority across the entire university. Currently, the University has some effective retention strategies and supports in place, but their implementation is somewhat disjointed. A cohesive and systematic approach towards advising involving widespread participation is necessary to impact student retention rates significantly. For instance, students struggling academically often face multiple challenges, including mental health issues, financial difficulties, and social adjustment hurdles. Merely addressing the symptom (such as poor academic performance) with a singular solution is often insufficient. A more effective approach is envisioned involving faculty-based professional advisors supported by campus resources who can help the entire spectrum of students' needs and address the underlying root causes of their challenges.

Strategic Opportunity: Adopt a holistic advising model for the institution
KPI: To improve the consistency and quality of advising for all students across all faculties.
Effectiveness Measures	Changes in student retention and graduation rates before and after implementing a holistic advising model.
	Evaluation of student satisfaction and engagement with advising services.
	Efficiency and effectiveness of advisors (e.g., # of students served, frequency of advising interactions, etc.).
	Assess if there is a decrease in average time to degree completion.
	Impact of advising on students including at-risk students those with financial needs culturally diverse students and pioneering students.
	Impact of the advising council and lead advisor in coordinating and reinforcing the institutional approach to advising.

Strategies

1. Implement faculty-embedded professional advisors with support from academic program coordinators.
2. Foster a holistic advising approach encompassing goal attainment, degree completion, building relationships, and proactive engagement.
3. Establish an Advising Council dedicated to enhancing advising effectiveness.
4. Appoint a Lead Advisor to coordinate and reinforce the advising model.
5. Automate advisor assignments using UWinsite.
6. Formalize advising protocols and invest in professional development.
7. Enhance UWinsite's functionality to facilitate effective advising practices.
8. Develop an academic literacy information program for students who may not have had sufficient preparation in high school or for additional language learners.

Transfer Enrolment Growth

The University of Windsor focuses on improving engagement with transfer students as a critical strategy to boost undergraduate enrolment. Currently, the number of students transferring to the university is significantly lower than other institutions of comparable size and program offerings, which provides a strategic opportunity to enhance future undergraduate enrolment.

Strategic Opportunity: Transfer Enrolment
KPI: To increase the number of learners who transfer to UWindsor from college or university.
Effectiveness Measures	The volume of inquiries, applications, offers, and enrolment from transfer students over time, including demographics and origins.
	Total count of active and accurate articulation agreements.
	Time taken to complete credit evaluations for students.
	Implementation of a streamlined policy and process for articulation agreements.
	Metrics related to transfer marketing include views, click-through rates, and responses to calls to action.
	Participation levels in transfer information sessions or events.
	The percentage of credits successfully transferred and applied towards degree requirements, as well as the proportion of transfer credits that are accepted but not applied to degree requirements (lost credits).
	The average time it takes for transfer students to complete their degree.

Strategies

1. Implement a strategy to enhance enrolment by establishing a Transfer Student Success Center within the proposed UWin One Stop. It includes a dedicated team focused on transfer students, recruitment specialists, admissions officers, and academic advisors to streamline and support their transition and success.
2. Formalize the Terms of Reference for the "Transfer Working Group."
3. Create a formalized process for creating and maintaining transfer agreements.
4. Explore a physical presence at St. Clair College.
5. Expand the role of the transfer enrolment advisor to a full-time position.
6. Identify and designate transfer champions within each faculty.
7. Improve communication of transfer credit information at the point of admission.
8. Empower the Registrar's Office for first-year course equivalencies.
9. Investigate on-the-spot transfer assessments.
10. Set guaranteed transfer evaluation timelines.
11. Implement competency-based learning admissions practices.

Early Alert

Although developing a formal early alert system falls outside the immediate scope of the 2024-29 SEM Plan, it has been identified as a critical strategic priority for boosting undergraduate enrolment. This system, or methodology, is vital to swiftly and proactively identifying students needing extra academic support, improving overall student outcomes.

In the meantime, preliminary strategies will be implemented to lay the groundwork for future, more comprehensive efforts. These initial measures will focus on identifying and supporting students requiring additional assistance. The university will proactively enhance student retention and success by implementing these foundational steps. This approach aligns with current enrolment goals and sets the stage for a campus-wide early alert system in the future.

Strategic Opportunity: Early Alert

KPI: To reduce the number of learners who do not complete their degree at UWindsor.

Effectiveness Measures	The level of participation and engagement of faculty and staff involved in the early alert process, such as the number of referrals of students who may be at risk.
	The usage of academic support services, counselling services, and other resources by learners identified as being at risk.
	Feedback from students who have been identified as being at risk.
	Retention and graduation rates of students who were identified and supported with those who were not.
	Academic performance (e.g., grades and GPA) of students before and after receiving support from the system.
	The number of Learning Management System course sections that include data around missed assignments, low participation, or a student drop in grades.

Strategies

1. Establish a dedicated Retention Committee within our SEM governance framework.
2. Identify and harness available data to develop a future early alert framework.
3. Conduct an in-depth environmental scan to benchmark current practices against sector best practices.
4. Formulate a precise institutional definition of "at-risk" individuals.
5. Initiate a pilot program for CRI's HeadStart Proactive Retention System, a Readiness Assessment tool.
6. Implement a pilot model for an Early Alert referral system, capitalizing on existing data and adopting a holistic professional advisor model.
7. Explore potential technological solutions for Early Alert systems to be considered in Strategic Enrolment Management Plan 3.0 (2028 – onwards).
8. Develop a strategy to bolster enrolment by pinpointing and addressing courses with high rates of under-performance and withdrawals, often referred to as challenging or 'gatekeeper' courses.

Performance Management

Performance management focuses on establishing a systematic, organized, and data-driven framework to achieve enrolment targets, emphasizing constant institutional adaptability and strategy refinement. This approach encompasses heightened accountability, effective execution, ongoing monitoring and evaluation, adaptability to change, and a commitment to perpetual improvement.

Enrolment Management Committees

The University's 2024-29 SEM Plan will see the Strategic Enrolment Executive (SEMEX) re-branded as the Enrolment Management Committee. This change retains the committee's existing membership, including all Decanal leaders. This committee will continue enhancing student recruitment, retention, and support, aligning these efforts with the university's broader strategic and academic goals.

A new SEM Executive Committee, chaired by the Provost and Vice-President, Academic, will be formed to steer the implementation of the SEM Plan. This committee will be drawn from the Enrolment Management, Recruitment & Retention, and Student Success Committees, ensuring coordinated efforts across the university that align with its overarching strategic direction.

Further, the SEM Plan introduces a new Recruitment and Retention Committee, replacing the Undergraduate and Graduate Committees. This new committee has a revised membership, including the chairs for the Transfer and Educators Working Groups. A sub-committee will focus on enhancing strategies for student retention and success.

This restructuring aims to unify and foster collaboration across essential university functions such as academic affairs, marketing, student communications, admissions, orientation, and enrolment services for undergraduate and graduate students.

Action Plans

To ensure the successful execution of the SEM Plan, a distinct working group will be established for each of the five strategic opportunities outlined in the plan. These groups, co-led by a faculty member and an administrative leader, will be tasked with developing a critical path for realizing their respective strategic opportunities. The composition of these working groups will include members from the strategy teams that contributed to the SEM Plan's development, additional members from the campus community, and support from the Associate Vice-President of Enrolment.

The primary responsibilities of these working groups are multifaceted. Building off earlier work of strategy teams, they will finalize and assign specific tasks and clear leadership roles to ensure accountability and seamless execution. Each group will also develop a detailed timeline for their functions, outlining the start and end dates to provide a structured and trackable progression. Moreover, they will establish Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for each task and the overarching dashboard, which are essential in evaluating the effectiveness of the initiatives and facilitating data-driven decision-making. Additionally, these groups will identify and address the crucial factors necessary for successfully implementing each strategic opportunity and the dashboard itself. This may include resource allocation, staff training, technology infrastructure development, and stakeholder engagement.

Once these action plans are crafted, the working groups will present their proposed implementation strategies to the SEM Executive Committee for approval, ensuring that the process remains aligned with the overarching goals of the SEM Plan and is executed efficiently.

SEM Plan Dashboard

A dashboard will be developed to monitor critical metrics identified in the SEM Plan. This includes essential data points like student enrolment numbers, retention rates, and demographic statistics. The design of this dashboard will be closely aligned with the objectives and strategies detailed in the SEM Plan, fostering a unified approach to managing enrolment. Furthermore, a comprehensive system will be established to track the progress of implementing the related strategic opportunities. This system will encompass the identification and delegation of tasks, the creation of detailed timelines, the setting of effectiveness measures, and the identification of essential factors for successful implementation.

Faculty Coordinating Council Presentations

The success of the SEM Plan is intrinsically linked to the involvement and collaboration of faculty across the institution. Recognizing that SEM permeates every facet of institutional functioning, it becomes clear that authentic faculty engagement is not just beneficial but essential. Faculty members play pivotal roles at various junctures of enrolment management, making their contribution indispensable for any SEM initiative's success. This interdependence is rooted in enrolment management being an institution-wide, long-term strategy built upon a foundation of shared responsibilities.

To reinforce this partnership and foster a culture of collaboration and institutional buy-in, annual presentations on the performance of the SEM Plan will be delivered to faculty coordinating councils. These presentations aim to inform and actively involve faculty in the ongoing process and achievements of the SEM Plan. This approach ensures the faculty remains integrally involved and invested in the plan, bolstering the institution's overall enrolment management strategy.

Annual Faculty Review

Recognizing lessons from the past and ensuring that the SEM Plan is not merely created, approved, and then relegated to obscurity, either on a shelf or in digital archives, is vital. Instead, it should be actively used as a dynamic, guiding document. Its ongoing refinement is crucial to keep it relevant and effective, aligning it with the evolving goals of the institution. This approach is critical in the ever-changing realm of higher education, where factors like demographic shifts, technological advancements, resource allocation, and government policies continuously reshape the landscape.

To this end, deans and their leadership teams will play a proactive role each year. They will be engaged to gather insights and feedback, share experiences, and provide diverse perspectives to assess and fine-tune the SEM plan, if necessary. This iterative process is crucial in enhancing strategies related to student recruitment, retention, and the overall quality of educational offerings, ensuring the SEM Plan remains a living, evolving road map for enrolment management and, ultimately, student success.

Annual APC Submission

It is proposed that an annual report on the Plan be submitted to the Academic Policy Committee of the Senate as a critical step in ensuring transparency and collaboration within the institution. This report will encapsulate the plan's progress, challenges, and future goals, emphasizing its impact on every aspect of the institution and the essential role of faculty engagement in enrolment management. This initiative is intended to solidify a culture of partnership and collaboration, engaging the Senate as a critical stakeholder in the ongoing refinement and success of the SEM Plan.

Conclusion

Ultimately, the Aspire for Student Success: Strategic Enrolment Management Plan 2024-29 embodies a forward-thinking blueprint to enhance student success through targeted recruitment, retention, and academic attainment. This plan, meticulously developed with extensive stakeholder input, leverages data-driven strategies and embraces the evolving educational landscape. It commits to nurturing a diverse, vibrant student body while aligning with institutional goals and responding dynamically to global challenges. As we embark on this strategic journey, our collective efforts will ensure the University of Windsor remains a beacon of excellence, accessibility, and innovation in the higher education sector.
