

Purpose

Use this form to request a review of your expected student financial contribution used in the assessment of your 2024-25 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students.

Note:

Your request will not be considered until the ministry verifies all 2022 income reported on your OSAP Application for Full-Time Students with the Canada Revenue Agency or through the ministry's Income Verification: Canadian Non-Taxable and/or Foreign Income forms (student, parent, and/or spouse versions).

You are ineligible for this review if you have earned or received income during your pre-study period or study period. This includes income received through earnings/work or through income replacement programs.

Required documentation

You must provide documentation to support your request for review. The type of documentation required is outlined in each section. You may be required to provide additional documentation based on the information you submit.

Write your name and student number on all documentation submitted. Any letters written by you must be signed and dated.

How to submit this form
